20 AMERICANS KILLED AND 17 CAPTURED BY MEXICANS

UNITED STATES TROOPS AND CARRANZA FORCES YESTERDAY MORNING ENGAGED IN SANGUINARY BATTLE AT CARRIZAL

Reports Reaching Border Through Both American and Mexican Sources Tell of Heavy Loss of Life on Both Sides, Probably a Score of Americans and Over Two Score Mexicans Being Killed, With Many Others Wounded.

MEXICAN COMMANDER PLACES BLAME ON AMERICANS SAYING THEY OPENED FIRE ON MEXICAN MESSENGER

United States Army Officers, However, Declare Their Disbelief in This Assertion—The Americans in the Engagement Believed to be Detachment of Tenth Cavalry, a Negro Regiment—General Pershing Has Not Yet Reported.

El Paso, Texas, June 21. — American and Carranza troops fought a sanguinary battle today only a few hours after President Wilson's 6,000-word note warning General Carranza that the "gravest consequences" would follow an attack upon American forces in Mexico, had gone forward. With which side victory rested was not known on the border tonight, as no report from General Pershing had come through. The casualties, also, were not known, but nearly a score of General Pershing's men were said to have been killed, and the Mexicans were reported to have lost more than 40. Seventeen Americans were declared by Mexican officials to have been captured and hurried to Chihuahua City under guard. A machine gun used by the Mexicans was said to have done heavy execution. The engagement occurred near the town of Carrizal, nine miles southeast of Villa Ahumada, the Mexican field headquarters in Northern Chihuahua.

The Americans engaged were thought to have been members of a troop from the Tenth cavalry, a negro regiment, returning from a scouting trip to Guzman. The size of the Mexican force, whose commander, General Felix Gomez, was killed, is not known.

American First Brings Report.

News of the battle was received in Juarez early this afternoon by General Gonzales, commander of the zone of the border. For some reason General Gonzales kept the story secret until late in the afternoon when an American, J. C. Hubbel, returning to the border from the interior, brought to El Paso the news that he had seen numbers of Mexican dead along the Mexican Central Railroad tracks at Villa Ahumada and had been told that there had been an encounter.

General Gonzales' first step after confirming the news was to issue a statement placing the blame on the American commander. He charged that the American troops fired first on the Mexicans and that their shots were directed at a courier who had just presented to them a request that they retire.

Believed Mexicans Provoked Fight.

American army officers declared absolute disbelief tonight in General Gonzales' assertions. The opinion was expressed that if the Americans fired on the Mexicans they did so because it was necessary in order to insure their own safety.

General Trevino's recent warning to General Pershing not to send his troops east, south or west of their positions was recalled.

Excitement spread in El Paso as extras were issued and the news became known. Quiet was maintained, however, in view of General Bell's frequent admonitions that his soldiers could take care of any situation that might arise. While awaiting instructions from headquarters at San Antonio, General Bell kept his entire force in readiness for instant action.

In the meantime, however, word came from Juarez that all was quiet, although the news of the battle was widespread there.

Mexicans Give Only Information.

Only information available came from the Mexican side. General Gonzales said that his information was transmitted to him from Villa Ahumada by Col. G. Rivas, who commanded the Mexicans after their leader, General Gomez, was slain. General Gonzales also gave the Mexican explanation of how the two forces came in contact.

According to General Gonzales, he was informed by General Gomez at Villa Ahumda last night of the presence of the Americans westward between Villa Ahumda and El Valle, he says he immediately instructed General Gomez to proceed to the Santo Domingo ranch where the Americans were reported in unknown force and advise their commander to retire to their camp.

This, he says, General Gomez did this morning. The American commander, whose name was not given by General Gomez, is said to have replied that he was instructed to proceed to Villa Ahumda and must do so. The statement issued by the Juarez commander read:

"Immediately upon learning of the presence of the American troops in the vicinity of Carrizal, General Felix Gomez dispatched a messenger with a request that the American commander withdraw his camp. When the American troops remained motionless, he sent a second dispatch bearer, who was fired upon by the American troops after he had delivered his message. The Americans immediately moved forward and attacked General Gomez's command.

"All the prisoners admitted that the blame should be put on the American commander for having ordered the attack. The prisoners were sent to Chihuahua City with the customary protection."

Mexicans Had Advantage.

Whichever side began the engagement the Mexicans had the advantage for they had provided themselves with a machine gun and this is supposed to have done deadly execution in the ranks of the Americans. That the latter were not inefficient, however, was proved by the number of Mexican dead and wounded.

The battle began about 10:30 A. M. and lasted not more than an hour. It apparently ended with both sides withdrawing. The failure of General Pershing to report in it indicated that the American survivors had not yet returned to their base at an early hour tonight.

The story brought to El Paso by Hubble, who has been employed by Compania Agricola at Bouquillas, bears out several of the details of the engagement presented by General Gonzales. Hubble's story was corroborated by James Maxey, another American who also was on his way to El Paso from the interior. Hubble and Maxey said that while their train was stopping at Villa Ahumda they noticed numbers of dead and wounded being brought in and were told by a Carranza captain that a battle had taken place. The captain informed them, they said, that a number of American prisoners had been locked in a cattle car and were to be taken to Chihuahua City to be hanged. They mentioned soldiers who told them that several hundred Americans and 120 Mexicans had been engaged.

American Tells Story.

The Mexican officers at Cilla Ahumada treated us with the greatest courtesy," said Mr. Hubble. "They answered our questions quietly and with no show of antipathy or excitement.

"According to the story they told us, the Mexican command was concealed in the underbrush when it discovered the American cavalrymen riding toward them over the sand. General Felix Gomez, the Mexican commander, immediately sent a courier asking for a parley under a flag of truce with the American commander. The parley was arranged and as the Mexican leader and two aides started forward the Americans suddenly deployed in a semicircular skirmish line.

"General Gomez, apparently believing he was about to be attacked, raised his arm and signaled a machine gun to open fire on the Americans. The machine gun swept the cavalry ranks causing heavy losses.

"Immediately, however, a detachment of American troopers dashed forward under heavy fire, to the center of the field where General Gomez and his staff were sitting on their horses. In the resultant encounter one of the cavalrymen killed the Mexican leader with his pistol, while the remainder of the Carranza party escaped to their own lines."

Hubble and Maxey said that some of the Mexicans openly boasted that the Americans had been drawn into an ambush.

The two Americans said their information was that the American dead numbered 17 and that the Mexicans had taken 40 prisoners.

Neither Maxey nor Hubble pointed

FUNSTON DOES NOT DOUBT THE REPORT

However, General Pershing Was Unable to Send Account of the Fight Last Night.

MEXICAN GENERAL KILLED

That the American Troops Suffered Heavily Seemed to Be Accepted as a Fact at Army Headquarters at San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, June 21.—American soldiers of General Pershing's command and a force of troops commanded by General Felix Gomez fought today at Carizal, nine miles southwest of Ahumada, the Mexican field base, and 70 miles east of General Pershing's line of communication. General Pershing had been unable to get to General Funston tonight any report of the engagement, but there appeared no reason to doubt the report from Mexican sources that a serious engagement had taken place and there was little doubt that the Americans, a detachment of the Tenth cavalry, a negro organization, had suffered heavily.

General Funston received late tonight from General Bell, at El Paso, the Mexican version of a fight today between a detachment of General Pershing's troops and the reports of the defacto government at Carrizal, southwest of Ahumada. A slightly different version was brought to El Paso by an American who passed through Amahuda and there heard Mexicans boasting that they had decoyed the Americans into an action by the use of a flag of truce.

The casualties on neither side were reported by General Bell, whose information was received from Andres Garcia, Mexican consul there, who gave it at the request of General Gonzales, commander of Juarez. General Gonzales had received the report from Amahuda, a station on the National railway that connects Chihuahua the capital of the state, witn the border. The wounded were taken to Amahuda.

From the American, who passed through Ahumada, at 2:30 o'clock this

NOTHING IN EVIDENGE TO IMPEACH ANDERSON

Hospital Investigation to be Concluded Today.

Latta and Other Patients of Institution Not Allowed to Testify, on Ground of Incompetency. Physicians Testify.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 21.—The investigation at the State Hospital for Insane here will be concluded tomorrow. About all the evidence is already in, and counsel are yet to review evidence and present conclusions.

Practically no evidence to really impeach Superintendent Anderson's management has been developed and today numbers of physicians and others especially competent to pass on such matters testified for the defense that the institution is well managed and in excellent condition and that Dr. Anderson's extension service for mental hygiene has been extended throughout the State, proving highly beneficial.

These witnesses included Dr. J. M. Parrott, Kinston; Dr. J. M. Taylor, Morganton; Dr. Faison, superintendent of the eastern hospital for insane; Dr. C McNary, Concord, and others.

Attorney General Bickett refused to present testimony by patients of the institution, holding that it had no place in the investigation. C. G. Latta, author of the charges, was barred along with the rest on the ground that his mental condition would not admit of his examination. Physicians said he was suffering from "dementia praetox," and that if he was allowed to appear as a witness the result might be disastrous.

Attorney General Bickett and the board of directors of the institution are investigating charges of mismanagement upon the part of Dr. Albert Anderson, the superintendent, and mistreatment of patients. Latta, who was a patient of the institution, filed charges several months ago just after his discharge from the hospital. Since that time he has been recommitted and again is an inmate.

EUROPEAN POWERS ACTIVE IN MEXICO TO PREVENT WAR

Allies Are Especially Anxious That There be No Conflict With the United States.

CARRANZA STUDYING NOTE

Secretary Baker Soon to Issue Marching Orders to Some National Guard Regiments.

Washington, June 21.—While General Carranza and his cabinet had under consideration today the American rejection of his demand for the recall of General Pershing's troops from Mexico, European diplomats were exerting pressure on the first chief to prevent him from going war with the United States, according to advices reaching here fro mMexico City. Some intimation as to Carranza's next move was expected hourly tonight at the State Department.

Special Agent Rodgers, in reporting that the American note was taken up by the first chief and his cabinet, was unable to forecast the action of the defacto government or to throw light on what was going on in the Mexican capital. From other sources, however, it was learned that the Entente Allies were particularly anxious that nothing should occur at this time to shut off the oil supplies for the British and French navy from the Tampico fields and that they were using their influence to prevent a break with the United States.

Believe German Agents Active.

Allied diplomatic representatives in Mexico, believe, too, that German influence has been working on Carranza in an effort to create a situation that might embarrass the enemies of the Central Powers.

They have asserted that German agencies have been active in stirring up feeling against the United States, not only in Mexico, but throughout South and Central America, to prevent this country from securing trade formerly controlled by German merchants.

It is understood that the diplomats have pointed out to General Carranza that the American note only declines to consider the withdrawal of the troops from Mexico, and that it quotes a portion of agreement between General Scott and General Obregon, providing for the withdrawal of the forces.

Another suggestion is that the dispute over border conditions could well be referred to an international commission under the treaty of 1848 between the two countries. Diplomatic officials here are known to believe that President Wilson would consider this suggestion if he met with no interference in the meantime in his efforts to guard the American border from bandits.

A study of all General Carranza's communications and actions featuring the last few months, has given little ground, officials feel, for a hopeful view of the situation. His attitude has been one of growing hostility and officials are not inclined to believe that it could be readily overcome.

Wilson Reviews Guardsmen.

While these matters occupied the attention of the State Department, President Wilson stood on the sidewalk in front of the White House today to review 2,000 members of the District of Columbia National Guard as they passed up Pennsylvania Avenue on their way to mobilization camp at Fort Meyer, Va.

Mr. Wilson's appearance, occompanied by Secretary Baker, was greeted with cheers fro mthe crowds gathered along the avenue. The President's eyes followed particularly the men in citizens clothing but carrying rifles and ammunition belts who appeared at intervals among the uniformed guardsmen. They were recruits who rushed to offer themselves since the call for the National Guard went out.

At the War Department telegrams came during the day from many states, reporting the progress of the mobilization. Scores of regiments are under canvas tonight. As yet no marching orders for the border have been given, but they will go before the week ends.

Sono to Issue Marching Orders.

"It is quite certain," Secretary Baker said, "that some of the regiments will go to the border shortly; but whether that means in a day or two more, I cannot say."

Major General Scott, chief of staff, indicated that the first organizations to complete muster into the service and which are well placed geographically will be sent forward promptly.

The general plan under which the state allotment of troops to be called out was made, is known as the 12th division plan, prepared by the War Department in 1912. A later scheme of organization has superseded this for use in a great war. But the old plans meet the present situation best. Under it the units called out represent twelve full army divisions when properly grouped. At peace strength they would total 100,000 men; at full war strength, approximately 250,000. The organizations President Wilson has summoned are to be expanded to as near that maximum as possible by recruiting in the states from which they come.

Army Reorganization Scheme.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE CHECKED BY THE GERMAN SOLDIERS

Kaiser's Men Generally the Aggressors in Fierce Fighting on Volhynian Front.

BERLIN REPORTS SUCCESS

Russians Continue to Drive the Austrian Armies West and Southwest in Bukowina.

Fierce fighting, with the Germans generally the aggressors, is in progress between the Russians and Germans in Volhynia along the Stokhod and Styr rivers and in the region lying between Lutsk and Vladimir-Volynski. The Russians, who had crossed the Styr and reached the village of Gruziatyn, west of Kolki, entered the town and captured eleven officers, 400 men and six machine guns. In the fighting the town changed hands several times, but under advanced German artillery fire the Russians finally were driven back with the loss of 1,000 men made prisoner, Berlin reports.

Along the Stokhod, near the village of Rajmiesto the Germans delivered a heavy attack, which resolved itself later into hand to hand fighting, in which the Russians, according to Petrograd, forced the German's to flee. Near Kiselin another heavy onslaught was stopped by the Russians and the Germans put to flight. Near Lokatchi southeast of Vladimir, Volynski, Vienna reports the capture of 1,300 Russians.

Northwest and north of Lutsk, vicious encounters are ensuing across the frontier in Galicia, the stalemate in the region of Buczacz.

In Bukowina the Russians continue to drive the Austrians west and southwest. Petrograd announces that the prisoners taken by the Russians in Volhynia and Galicia up to June 15 aggregated 172,484.

The Germans claim successes for their armies in the northern part of the Russian front in the Dvinsk, Smorgon and Dubatowka sectors, with the infliction of heavy losses on the Russians in the latter region.

On both sides of the Meuse river in the region of Verdun, the Germans again launched strong attacks against the French positions, but everywhere were repulsed by the French artillery. Except for intermittent bombardments there was comparative quiet on the other part of the French front Wednesday.

Rome reports the capture of an Austrian position in the Posina valley,

Have Been Captured by Russian General Brussiloff's Armies Up Until Thursday.

GERMANS PUT TO FLIGHT

Official Russian War Statement Says Severe Engagement on the Stokhod River Was Put Down. The Drive Continues.

Petrograd, Via London, June 21.—The war office announced today that the number of men captured by the Russians in the offensive in Volhynia and aGlicia up to Thursday of last week was 172,484. The official announcement also says that in a severe engagement on the Stokhod river German troops, which made an attack in mass formation, were repulsed and took to flight. The announcement says:

"Desperate fighting continues in the region north of Gadomitchi on the Styr. The village of Gruziatyn changed hands several times. Yesterday afternoon we entered the village and captured 11 officers, 400 men and six machine guns, but gusts of German artillery compelled us to evacuate the town again.

"With furious persistence the Germans operating in the region of Vorontchine, northwest of Kieslin, under cover of gusts of artillery fire from both light and heavy guns, made repeated attacks on the evening of June 20 against our young regiments. Our troops by impetuous attack put the Germans to flight, taking nine machine guns, and a number of prisoners belonging to various regiments."

"At 3 o'clock on the following morning in the region of the village of Rajmiesto on the Stokhod river, northeast of Vorontchine the enemy attacked in massed form. The engagement became a hand to hand struggle in which the Germans, unable to sustain our steady pressure, took flight, leaving in our hands wounded and prisoners not yet counted.

"Desperate fighting is in progress in the region of Kiselin and further south.

WASHINGTON AWAITS WITH ANXIETY OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE CARRIZAL BATTLE

If It Was Deliberate Attempt to Force Carranza's Demand for Withdrawal, There is Little Doubt That President Wilson Will Accept It as an Act of War, and Declare Open Hostilities—Funston Transmits His Report of Occurrence.

Washington, Jun 21.—Reports that American and Carranza troops had clashed aroused gravest apprehension here tonight for future relations between the United States and the Mexican defacto government, already strained almost to the breaking point. Officials declined to prophecy as to the next step of the Washington government. They made no effort to conceal the anxiety, but were not ready to abandon hope that an official account of what happened at Carrizal would remove the more threatening elements.

Much depends, it was indicated, on whether the clash was General Carranza's determination to force his demand for the withdrawal of the American troops. If it was a deliberate attempt to back up the Carranza edict by force, there seems little doubt that President Wilson will accept it as an act of war and make good his words in the latest communication to the defacto government in which he said any such act would be followed by the gravest consequences.

President Wilson remained at his office until late tonight receiving such meagre information as was available and Secretary Baker was in close touch with the War Department and the White House. There was every evidence that credence was given the report of a clash even though it came from Mexican sources, and that there was full realization of what it might mean. The Mexican story of the fight, as given to General Bell by Consul Garcia, at El Paso, was forwarded to the War Department by General Funston without comment. The wording of the despatch led to the announcement by department officials that it contained a confirmation from an American source. However, it was only such as came from the Mexican consul.

It seemed certain that President Wilson would await an official report before taking any drastic step in retaliation. If an American commander precipitated an engagement this might have weight with the administration in determining its course of acton. All commanders are under instructions of the most positive kind to avoid friction with the Mexican troops and they have no authority to attack any Mexican force.

There was no doubt at the War Department that General Pershing would take immediate steps to relieve the detachment if it had been attacked, but it was said that outside of efforts to rescue it, he would undertake no offensive. A formal offensive against the Carranza troops in North Mexico would not be undertaken, it is believed, until General Funston's border guard had been greatly strengthened with National Guard troops and several columns organized to take possession of points of strategic value.

Officials continued to express entire confidence in the ability of General Pershing to maintain his position in any emergency. The War Department has never revealed the numerical strength of the column in Mexico but it is believed to be between 10,000 and 12,000 men. The expedition also included a considerable proportion of field and mountain artillery and a full complement of machine gun companies and troops. It has ample supplies of ammunition and has had sufficient time to big itself in at every point where entrenchments were thought necessary.

General Funston transmitted to the War Department the following report from General Bell at El Paso:

"There was a clash this morning at Carrizan begtween Carranza and Amer-

Theme of Addresses Heard at the First Day's Sessions of N. C. Good Roads Association.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Welcoming Addresses by Mayor P. Q. Moore and Other Municipal and County Officials.

AN ALL-STATE GATHERING

Inspection of Roads Today; Recital Tonight.

Following the welcoming addresses yesterday morning by municipal and county officials and the responses by President H. B. Varner, who is presiding at the meetings, and by Dr. W. C. Riddick, president of the A. & M. College, the annual convention of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, which met in the Harbor Island Auditorium at Wrightsville Beach yesterday morning, took up at the afternoon meeting the earnest consideration of ways and means of conserving and maintaining the system of highways already built in the State.

More than 500 visiting delegates had registered for the Convention yesterday, and it is expected that fully that number in addition will be registered today, as a special train is to be run over the W. C. and A. road, while dozens of automobile parties are coming from all the surrounding country. The delegates will be taken for a tour of inspection this morning over the roads of New Hanover, and this afternoon and tonight there will be other sessions at the beach. The convention closes tomorrow night with a grand illuminated parade at the beach and souvenir dance at Lumina.

Maintenance Keynote.

The keynote of the convention was sounded yesterday by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, secretary of the association, who in his annual report recommended that steps be taken for the cordial support of the State Highway Commission by the further enactment of laws in its behalf and urged that provisions be made in the State statutes prohibiting any county or township from issuing bonds for road construction without arranging for the proper maintenance of improved highways.

Dr. H. M. Rowe, president of the American Automobile Association, was one of the distinguished speakers on the programme yesterday afternoon and made a strong address in which he urged that automobile taxes collected by the State should be used for maintaining the roads. Mr. D. H. Winslow, engineer ofthe United States Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, explained the patrol system of maintenance and Mr. Martin S. Willard, of Wilmington, told the visitors something of what had been done in New Hanover in the way of maintenance.

The visitors were entertained with a "few stunts" by the Rotary Club on the beach following the afternoon session yesterday. "Hon. Champ Clark" addressed the assembled multitude on the subject of the condition of the country, following which "Governor Locke Craig" introduced "President Wilson," who spoke on the subject of preparedness and peace in general. In the midst of his speech a dozen or more gaily dressed "women" broke up the meeting with their shouts of "votes for women," and were taken summarily by "policemen" and dipped in the briny waves of the Atlantic ocean. The antics of the boosters greatly amused the visitors.

The visiting delegates were made to feel at home last night at an informal "Get Together" meeting at the Oceanic Hotel, the official headquarters of the convention. Cigars and cigarettes were passed around and everyone made to feel at home.

Tour of Roads Today.

The delegates to the convention will be taken in automobiles for a tour of inspection of the roads of New Hanover county this morning following which they will be given an opportunity to witness a demonstration of treatment of waterbound macadam with tarvia and granite chips. Cars will leave from in front of the City Hall, corner Third and Princess streets,

WEBB OR DAVIS FOR SUPREME COURT BENCH

Judge Allen Virtually Eliminated From the Race.

Bunch of Ladies From Lumberton and Other Places in This Section Call at White House—Vance Statue Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 21.—President Wilson gave Senators Simmons and Overman no encouragement whatever that he would name Judge W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, as a member of the Supreme Court when the two Tar Heel senators called at the White House today to ask the appointment of the Goldsboro man. In fact, Judge Allen is virtually eliminated from the race.

Should the President decide to name a man from North Carolina Congressman Yates Webb, chairman of the House Judiciary committee, would probably be the choice of Mr. Wilson. Both Webb and John W. Davis, of West Virginia, the latter now serving as Solicitor General of the Department of Justice, are being considered by the President. The chances are in favor of Mr. Davis, however.

Probably 500 North Carolinians, including Governor Craig, will attend the unveiling exercises of the Vance statue in the Capitol tomorrow morning. Senators Overman, Lodge, of Massachusetts; Hoke Smith, of Georgia, and Vice President Marshall are among the list of speakers.

Senator Overman and Representative Godwin introduced a number of Eastern North Carolina girls to the President today. They were in tow of W. K. Bethune, of Lumberton. Those in the party were:

Lumberton—Misses Nina Bryan, Flora Prevatt, Jennie Russell, Marjorie Russell, Sarah Carlyle, Gertrude Bethune, Amanda McDiarmid. Messrs. Clinton Norment, Robert Proctor, Q. T. Williams, Irvin Williams, W. W. Davis and Ralph Whaley.

Linden—Misses Effie Davis and Berta Davis.

Lillington—Miss Fannie Salmon.

Chadbourn—Misses Lois Wooten, Helen Hand and Mrs. F. T. Wooten.

Laurinburg—Misses Emily Patterson and Janie Patterson.

McDonald—Miss Ada McCormick.

Fayetteville—Miss Sudie Hubbard, Mrs. Sallie McRae and Rozie McRae.

regular army under the new army bill also was announced today. It provides for the addition of seven regiments of infantry, two of cavalry, three of field and heavy artillery and two of engineers. The act takes effect July first and by the plan announced the new regiments composing the first annual increment of increase will be created on that date, giving General Funston twelve new regimental units.

Officers say the reorganization can take place on the border without impairing the efficiency of the force.

All the officers necessary for the regiments will be drawn from the existing organization and promotions all along the line will follow. The effect will be to leave the army virtually without second lieutenants and it is said here that the additional officers provided for under the bill will be fed into the service.

There will be many promotions also among the enlisted men. New noncommissioned officers will have to be selected in both the old and new regiments and it is planned to distribute the seasoned men equally. They will be found in the ranks of the privates and the gap to be filled will be only in the grade of private.

GOODRICH EMPLOYES BACKED BY COMPANY

Those Called to the Colors Relieved of Financial Worry.

Announces It Will Compensate Dependents of Married and Single Men Who Answer the President's Call to Arms.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 21.—The executive committee of the B. F. Goodrich Company gives notice to all the corporation's employes who are enlisted in state military and naval organizations in so far as possible to relieve from financial worry those of their employes who are subject to military duty and also as an expression of desire on the part of the company to make substantial recognition of this opportunity to co-operate with its employes in carrying out its share of the common duty of all to answer the National call for military assistance.

The policy of the company as set forth today in an announcement by the executive committee ,is as follows:

"This announcement applies to all employes of this company formerly enrolled as members in good standing in any state military or naval organization at midnight Monday, June 19, 1916, and who are accepted by the proper military officers for active service in the present Mexican crisis. In case of orders being issued by the military authorities requiring the services of employes mentioned above for actual military duty necessitating absence from the regular duties of this company, compensation will be awarded as follows:

"After allowance being made for payment for service by the government or state or from any other source the direct result of military service, this company will pay as military compensation the difference between such sources of income and the following:

"To all married and single men contributing regularly to the support of actual dependents, one-half of their average salary or wage. Thus an employe with dependents whose average wage for three months has been $100 per month and who receives $15 per month from the government will be granted military compensation from this company of $51.66 per month. Payment of military compensation will be paid direct to the dependents designated or upon the request of men without dependents will be held in trust by the company until the return of the employe. The period of absence on military duty will not be considered a breech in continuity of service as affecting our life insurance or pension regulation, but such time of absence will be included in the company service records of each employe the same as if he had not engaged in military service. During such absence of an employe, the life insurance issued to him by this company will remain in full force and effect. Discrimination will not be made in any manner against any employe upon his return from military service and as far as is possible arrangements will be made for each man to return to his former position.

"The above condition will apply to employes whose extent of absence is one year or less continuously in state military or naval service, but the privilege of the company is recognized to make such modifications as may appear advisable."

out that all of the Mexicans with whom they talked apparently left the field before the engagement had been completed.

To Evacuate Juarez.

Late tonight preparations apparently were under way for the peaceful evacuation of Juarez. Several troop trains were pulled into the railroad yards ready for immediate use. Andreas Garcia, Mexican consul in El Paso, crossed the Rio Grande after the first reports of the fight, but kept in touch with General Bell over the telephone.

Numbers of persons gathered about the plaza immediately when news of the battle became public, but there were no demonstrations.

Mexicans apparently confined themselves to speculation as to the consequences. Heavy patrols were thrown into the streets with instructions to put down any disorders.

At General Gonzales' headquarters a victory for Mexico was being claimed. The scene in the front room of the commandacia where the younger officers were gathered, was holiday-like. Several of them, speaking of the battle, said, "We won." They remained composed, however, and made little other reference to the incident.

Juarez first learned of the fight in a vague form in the early afternoon. The civilian population then began to pack their household goods.

Many already had left for interior points by a morning train in anticipation of the trouble. Others crossed to El Paso later in the day.

Warlike Activity.

Warlike activity was first noticed at the railway yard where a string of freight cars lay coupled to several day coaches that bore the name of the army corps of the North. A number of men were employed there in stowing sacks of beans and flour, forage and other army supplies. Large numbers of cavalry passed through toward the hills Many wagons filled with women and children were bound also in that direction. No instance of any attempt to molest any Americans was reported. After dark no American is believed to have remained in Juarez.

"This shows how dangerous it is to bring American and Mexican troops in contact," said Mexican Consul Garcia tonight. "But it need not lead to war. It may be treated as a regrettable incident. I am still optimistic."

Consul Garcia said he would spend the night in Juarez, explaining that he might do more good there than on the American side.

"You can deny," he added, "that I am going to close the consulate in El Paso for I have received no such orders."

ADDITIONAL TROOPS WERE SENT TO NOGALES LAST NIGHT

Douglas, Ariz., June 21. — One battalion of the Arizona militia and a battalion of the Fourteenth United States infantry were sent to Nogales on a special train tonight. The soldiers were sent in response to an appeal from the citizens at Nogales.

General Gomez sent a captain with an order to the American commander to go back, but the commander said he was going to Villa Ahumada and opened fire on the captain. Americans attacked General Gomez but were thrown back. Prisoners were sent to Chihuahua. Garcia says this was telephoned at request of General Gonzales.

"An American who was on the train today passing Villa Ahumada at 2:30 said he saw several dead Mexicans put on his train, among them a dead Mexican general. There were also several Mexican wounded. He gathered from talk there that the fight was with American cavalry, nine miles west and that the Americans were decoyed into a trap by the use of a mexican flag of truce and they were then fired upon by machine guns. Raleigh, N. C., June 27.—The North Carolina Association of Cotton Seed Crushers, in annual session here, enjoyed tonight an elaborate supper and social evening, at the Raleigh Country Club, there having been covers for 60 with a menu that was most tempting. The opening session was at the A. & M. college this morning, at 10 o'clock, with President N. E. Edgerton, of Selma, presiding.

Mayor James I. Johnson welcomed the visitors and the response was by C. W. Mitchell, of Aulander, who is a member of the State Board of Agriculture.

The association heard an instructive address by Dr. W. A. Withers, of the College faculty, on the "Value of Cotton Seed Meal for Feed and Fertilizer Purposes."

President Edgerton presented his annual address, which was referred to a committee and will be given special consideration in later sessions of the association tomorrow.

ABSOLUTE DIVORCE GRANTED

Decree in Case of Dr. Carr Against His Wife Recorded.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., June 21.—An absolute divorce was granted Dr. George A. Carr from Bettie Hunt Carr on statutory grounds here this afternoon. The evidence in the case was heard Monday afternon and Judge Whedbee signed the decree just before court recessed for the night. However, he advised the clerk of court to refrain from recording the matter until advised. This afternoon he ordered the recording of the decree.

The case is one that has been followed with considerable interest because of the station in life occupied by the Carrs prior to their trouble.

Parry Sound, Ont., Can., June 21. — At least five workmen were killed and twenty seriously injured here today in an explosion followed by fire in a shrapnel factory at the plant of the Canadian Explosives, Ltd. The cause has not been determined. About 70 men were at work in the building, but many of them escaped in time.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 21. — Isaac Davenport, 32, of Richmond, Va., secretary of the Pan-American Insurance Company, shot and killed himself in his apartments here late today. No motive for the suicide is known.

Headaches Every Morning, Can't Eat Much Breakfast, Liver Not Acting?

A Wineglassful of Tollo Water Will Make Your Liver Act Freely In Half an Hour

Morning headaches come from a clogged liver. The bile tubes get choked and force the bile back into the stomach, the blood takes it up and the whole system becomes poisoned, the appetite becomes poor, especially at breakfast.

Get a 15-cent bottle of Tollo Water from the drug store and take about a third of a tumbler full in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In about thirty minutes it will start the liver acting freely, your headache will be relieved at once, because it flushes out the bile, really bathes the liver, leaving it clean and fresh. Then you can eat breakfast and enjoy it, and there won't be any gas or discomfort afterwards.

Concentrated Tollo Water comes from Dawson Springs. It does not act by irritation, like calomel and other strong drugs that weaken the system, but by dissolving the obstructions and bathing the liver as nature requires. To remove the bile that has been absorbed into the blood you should take a wineglassful every morning for several days. It will clear up the skin, pimples and sallowness will disappear, your tongue will lose its furry coat and your natural, healthy color will return. Then an occasional glass before breakfast or at any time on an empty stomach will keep your liver clean and your appetite good.

afternoon, General Bell learned that the Mexicans attacked a force believed to have been a detachment of the Tenth cavalry, a negro regiment.

Both the American's version of the reports he heard at Ahumada and the report made by General Gonzales agreed that the Mexican force was commanded by General Felix Gomez and that he was killed during the action.

According to the report General Gonzales said he had received, the American detachment came into contact with the Mexican force through messengers sent forwar dby General Gomez to ask the American commander to retire.

The Americans, the Mexicans claimed, fired upon the messenger without warning. Almost immediately after the Americans attacked the Mexicans replied with a machine gun fire, wounding and killing many of the Americans. Apparently there ensued a brief period in which neither side attacked but soon the Americans went into action with a brisk fire which was replied to by General Gomez's force.

Stubborn Eczema Healed By Amolox

We are daily receiving letters of praise from people who have been cured by Amolox. Many of them tell how, for years, they have tried different remedies and doctors in the vain effort to find relief. Some become discouraged and lose all hope of ever being cured. E. R. Frisbee, 187 Sycamore St., Mansfield, O., writes: "Our baby's face was covered with eczema scales, sores and scabs. She was a pitiable sight. We tried everything. Took her to Pittsburg doctors but were unable to find any relief until we used Amolox. It cured her within a short time."

Amolox ointment will quickly heal pimples on the face, red nose, and minor skin troubles. Chronic cases of dry or moist scaly eczema require both the ointment and liquid to effect a cure. At all drug stores. Trial size, 50c. Recommended and guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

How are your biscuits baking?

VALIER'S BEST PATENT DAINTY FLOUR
VALIER & SPIES MILLING CO.
MARINE, ILL. ST. LOUIS, MO. ST. JACOB, ILL.
Manufactured From SELECTED WINTER WHEAT OF BEST QUALITY

If your biscuits are not baking as light and fine as they used to it's due to rain-damaged wheat.

This season's crop was the worst in 50 years. Flour from such wheat lacks strength; doesn't rise properly because it's fermented by too much moisture.

But you can get flour made from highest grade wheat. By sending our own men to far off sections and paying premium prices, we got enough of the best wheat to keep Valier's Dainty Flour up to the highest quality. Now, especially, you ought to get this superfine flour. It may cost a trifle more, but it is guaranteed to make better biscuits, cake, pastry etc.

IMPORTANCE OF ROAD MAINTENANCE IS THE CONVENTION KEYNOTE

in Wilmington promptly at 10 o'clock and all delegates are requested to be on hand at 9:45 o'clock in order that they may secure seats in the machines which will be assembled there.

Following the tour of the roads the visitors will enjoy a lunch which is to be served at the plant of the Carolina Metal Products Company in the southern part of the city. Mr. George P. Galvin, general manager of the company, will be in charge of this affair which promises to be a most delightful one.

Chairman W. A. McGirt, of the New Hanover Board of Commissioners, will preside at the afternoon session which will meet at 2:30 o'clock.

The work of State and county prisoners will be the subject for discussion and there are a number of important addresses to be made including one by Hon. Charles Henry Davis, president of the National Highways Association, on "The Honor System" and another on "Economic Use of Prisoners in Road Construction," by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist and secretary of the Association. Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer of New Hanover, will discuss "Health and Sanitation of Prison Camps." The afternoon session will be followed by athletic feats by the boys of the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. and the delegates in front of the Oceanic Hotel.

Voice Recital Tonight.

In addition to addresses by Hon. O. L. Evans, president of the Virginia Road Builders' Association, and by Mr. G. Herbert Smith, a prominent business man of Acme, at the session tonight, there will be a voice recital by Miss Anna Graham Harris, contralto soloist, with Mr. William G. Robertson as accompanist. Miss Harriss is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harris, of Wilmington, and has appeared as soloist in concert and oratorio under the leadership of such masters as Arturo Papalardo, Wassili Leps, Herbert J. Tiley, Charles E. Knauss and Karl Schneider. She has been studying for the last several years in Philadelphia and New York. The selections to be sung by Miss Harris tonight will include "The Eagle," by Carl Busch; "Contentment," by Mary Turner Salter;; "O don fatale" (Don Carlos) by Verdi; "Hindu Slumber Song," by Harriet Ware, and "The Wind" by Charles Gilbert Spross.

All meetings of the convention are open to the public and as there will be reports on all the different highways in the State tonight which will be of particular interest to all concerned in the cause of good roads, it is expected that there will be a large attendance tonight as well as at the afternoon session. The recital by Miss Harris will be one of the features of the convention. Of her Musical America has said, "Miss Harris sings with facility throughout an admirable range in which all the tones are even and well placed." The Philadelphia papers have given her high praise as a soloist.

The Afternoon Session.

The morning session adjourned at 1 o'clock, and the convention convened again at 3, after the visitors and delegates had enjoyed a most excellent dinner at the Oceanic.

The first of the addresses of the afternoon session was delivered by Mr. D. H. Winslow, senior engineer in charge of maintenance of the United States office of public roads and rural engineering, whose subject was the patrol system of maintenance. Mr. Winslow's talk was intensely practical, and it was heard with the greatest of interest by the delegates. He told of the workings of the patrol system in the maintenance of the Washington-Atlanta highway, going into detail as to the system as it works out practically, and also into the details of the checking and auditing system used to keep track of the work and its cost.

He also cited the benefits following the inauguration of such a system of road maintenance, pointing out that in the North Carolina link, the past year, it was possible for the first time in the history of the State to go from its northern to southern border in an automobile 365 days in the year without the use of chains or non-skid tires.

Mr. Winslow also told of the use of the color scheme in marking the State and National highways, a very simple and inexpensive, and yet an absolutely efficient way of enabling the tourist to find his way and follow any given road. The color scheme for the National highway from north to south, he said, was red, white and blue, and for State road from Morehead City to Asheville was blue and white. These colors are simply painted on the telegraph poles and mail box posts along the roads, and the tourist has only to follow the colored bands on the poles.

He also mentioned that many of the county commissioners of the State have expended money for sign boards for the roads. This was an unnecessary expenditure, he said, as there is a concern in the country which will furnish any county with sign boards for every mile of road it desires to mark. Details as to how these signs may be obtained, he said, could be had on application to Mr. W. S. Fallis, the State highway engineer.

Mr. Winslow, in the course of his remarks, spoke very highly of the work of Engineer Fallis, and congratulated North Carolina upon the splendid work that the State Highway Commission is doing through Mr. Fallis.

Mr. Winslow's address made a splendid impression upon his hearers, and he was roundly applauded as he concluded it.

Dr. Rowe Speaks.

The second of the afternoon speeches was made by Mr. H. M. Rowe, president of the American Automobile Association, of Baltimore, Md., one of the pioneer organizations for boosting good roads. Mr. Rowe told something of the organization and how it has, through its good roads board, lent its support to good roads movements all over the country. His talk, however, was more particularly with reference to the automobile license tax, and what use should be made of it. Inasmuch, he said, as the license tax against the automobile was levied on the assumption that automobile traffic was destructive to roads, then it seemed only reasonable that the money raised through such a tax should be put back on the road for maintenance. This is the plan followed by the state of Maryland, he declared, and every dollar received by the state from the automobile license tax goes back into the road maintenance fund. The amount raised by Maryland this year in this manner, Mr. Rowe stated, would be something like $600,000. And under this system, he observed, every road in Maryland is today in better shape than it was when the State received it from the contractor. A splendid patrol system of maintenance is operated, and within 12 hours after a road is received from the contractor, the patrol system is inaugurated on it.

Mr. Rowe spoke of some of the costly mistakes made by the different states in their early efforts toward road building, and observed that while North Carolina may have been a little late in starting a State-wide campaign for good roads building, this, in a way, could be considered an advantage, for the State could profit by the experience of other states, and avoid some of the mistakes that the other states had made.

Mr. M. S. Willard, member of he New Hanover Board of County Commissioners and former chairman of the board, made a splendid address on the importance of road maintenance. He showed the folly of allowing improved roads to deteriorate through lack of care.

Committees Are Appointed.

Committee appointments were announced by President Varner at the afternoon session as follows:

On nomination and place of next meeting—J. G. Stikeleather, Buncombe; O. H. Webb, Alamance; H. C. Trott, Rowan; W. S. Jones, Guilford; B. Allen, Montgomery; M. F. H. Gouverneur, New Hanover; William Dunn, Craven, and R. P. Coble.

Committee on resolutions—W. C. Boren, Guilford; W. D. MacMillan, New Hanover; W. E. Johnson, Buncombe; W. S. Fallis, Wake; A. M. McDonald, Mecklenburg.

Committee on Membership—R. P. Coble, Ira B. Mullis, J. L. Becton, P. M. Brown, J. S. Slaughter and N. C. Hughes.

Morning Session.

Though scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock, the convention hall, upon which the Tidewater Power Company's men have been working night and day for the past few weeks, was not ready at this time, and it was an hour and a half later when the convention was called to order. Even at that, it required herculean efforts to get things in shape for the opening, and the workmen performed wonders during the last hour and a half.

It was 11:20 o'clock when Don Richardson's orchestra struck up the first musical selection, and during the next ten minutes the delegates and visitors filed steadily into the big auditorium.

President H. B. Varner, of Lexington, called the convention to order at 11:30 o'clock, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Wilmington, pronounced the invocation, asking Divine blessing upon the convention and the cause it represented.

Addresses of Welcome.

Following a selection by the Acme Male Quartette, of Wilmington, Mayor Thos. H. Wright, of Wrightsville Beach, delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the resort. He referred to the very great pleasure it was for the beach to entertain so worthy a body as the Goods Roads association, and expressed the hope that all delegates and visitors would derive an equal pleasure from their visit and stay at the resort. Mayor Wright said that he would refrain from a discussion of roads and roads subjects, except to point out that a project is planned to construct a road across the sound from the mainland to the beach, so that visitors from the interior of the State could motor down to the sound and on across to the beach and to the very doors of the hotel or cottage at which they would stop. His reference to this project was applauded by his hearers.

Mayor P. Q. Moore delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city of Wilmington. The people of North Carolina, he declared, were a long suffering and forbearing people, but when once aroused there are no people on earth who will stand more firmly or work more energetically for what they believe to be the right. It was only in recent years, he said, that the people of the State have come to a proper appreciation of what good roads mean, but since that time the progress that the State has made has been wonderful. To the North Carolina Good Roads Association, more than to any other single factor, the credit for this progress was due.

Mayor Moore mentioned that opposition to good roads was still to be encountered in some quarters, but thanks to the Good Roads Association, which stands as a powerful machine for sweeping out ignorance and selfishness back of such a stand, such opposition is rapidly losing its force.

The speaker reviewed briefly some of the stirring events in the history of the Cape Fear section, calling to the attention of his hearers the fact that the resistance of the men of the little colonial town of Brunswick to the captain of the sloop of war Defiance, when he attempted to land the tax stamps, constituted the first defiance of British power in America. He also touched on other important events that stand as monuments to the memory of men who were always to be found battling for the right.

And today, he declared, the sons and descendants of these men were just as ready to work for any cause that is right and just—were ready to work unceasingly with the North Carolina Good Roads Association until modern improved highways link the mountains of Zebulon B. Vance with the seashore

TOP O' THE MORNING.

Wilt thou seal up the avenues of ill?
Pay every debt as if God wrote the bill.

—EMERSON.

Welcome to the Baptist young people.

Good roads cost too much to be neglected.

Wilmington is truly the hub of North Carolina this week.

What are the wild waves saying? "Welcome to all North Carolina."

The Americans who want to get the best of Mexico are about to have their way.

"Home, Sweet Home! There's no place like home," when they want you to tell it good-bye.

Don't forget to plant pecans, English walnuts and avenue orchards, along the good roads.

All together for signboards at every point in North Carolina where public roads cross or intersect!

A man who tries to keep out of trouble but finally gets into it deserves all the assistance he can get.

The position which we want to occupy at the close of this campaign is the one right on top with Wilson.

Most of us would like to be personally conducted to a barbecue and then be dropped to shift for ourselves.

The people in the country don't believe all the campaign prevarications scattered around by the pikers who are busy pikering.

Build good roads so they can be kept good and then see that a programme is adopted that will insure keeping them good.

It took a cartoonist to discover the fact that the Republican national ticket represents "Justice and Just Ice." Gwan wid such plays upon worruds!

How can pharmacists keep from smiling when they remember how funny some men are when they wink as if somebody might come to their rescue?

As a general thing the crookedest men get right to the front by being smooth enough to get by with the goods. Fine words beguile, while appearances deceive.

As we now see it, we've got the opposition skinned to a finish, but the op. has an idea that it will get our goat and take all of our postoffices away from us as soon as it can possibly be done.

The labor of convicts is public property. It ought to be applied to the public roads either directly or through the expenditure of cash which ought to be collected for the work of convicts on private enterprises.

Our ancestors courageously settled this beautiful country by keeping enough ammunition on hand to settle with the Indians who were not exactly satisfied that aliens would make the right sort of population to be assimilated by the natives. This question of assimilating aliens is giving us a great deal of trouble ourselves.

That was a good business deal which the State Prison Board consummated at Raleigh Tuesday when it agreed to withdraw 150 or more State convicts from work on the construction of railroads in Western North Carolina, for which the State is receiving $1.65 a day in stock in the railroads being built, and lease them to the contracting firm in charge of the hydro-electric development work at Baden, which offered $2 a day in cash for the convicts. Not only is the price much higher, but cash beats stock in prospective railroads out of sight, especially when no man knows the value of this stock—indeed, if it has any value at all.

ORGANIZED PROMOTION IS THE THING.

The mobilization of the good roads adherents and enthusiasts of North Carolina through the State Good Roads Association, brought about at the present time at Wrightsville Beach, proves conclusively that nothing succeeds so well as a live organization to promote a cause, to carry out a purpose or to succeed with an enterprise.

Georgia's live packing house center furnishes a notable example, for Moultrie now has the whole state stirred up over an organized effort to promote the livestock industry in every portion of the state. Moultrie arranged some time ago for holding a state-wide livestock convention there June 27 and 28, and the chamber of commerce and citizens of Moultrie have enlisted the interest and co-operation of the citizens of Georgia, the various city and county organizations and the railroads in the effort to make the livestock convention the most notable event in Georgia for years.

Moultrie has flooded the state with invitations which begin, "Your presence is urgently requested," etc. The Atlanta Constitution says "Moultrie means every word of it," for "no Georgia community has ever thrown its whole heart and energy into any affair in greater proportion than has Moultrie in putting herself back of what undoubtedly will be Georgia's greatest livestock convention." The purpose of this constructive movement at Moultrie is thus referred to in the editorial columns of The Constiuion:

"This gathering is not simply a south Georgia affair. It is held in a south Georgia city because in that territory most interest has been shown in the progress of this industry, which, in a short year or two, has been developed above and beyond all expectations. If all the rest of Georgia had been as enterprising and energetic in the matter of pushing the livestock industry as has the section adjacent to Moultrie the state would at least be near the point today where the importation of meat products would no longer be a necessity.

"Joining in the invitation to all Georgians interested in the growth of the cattle industry, to attend this convention, are the Georgia branch of the Sotuhern Setlement & Development organization, the Moultrie chamber of commerce, the Georgia Dairy & Livestock Association, the State bureau of animal industry, the State college of Agriculture, and the following railroads: The Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic, the Georgia Northern, the Valdosta, Moultrie & Western, the Georgia & Florida, and the Flint River & Northeastern.

"The future of Georgia and the South is inseparably linked with the future of the livestock business.' is an interesting statement appearing upon the invitation signed by the foregoing railroad companies and others indicated. The signature of these railroads to this invitation is particularly significant just now, when some of them at least, along with other railroads of the state, are petitioning the railroad commission for somewhat extraordinary increases in freight rates on the raw material and products of the very industry which this convention is seeking to build."

The Star has often urged the organization of livestock associations as a means of promoting the great livestock industry, and it heartily concurs with its Atlanta contemporary that there could be no more important business gathering held in Georgia just at this time. It is one regarding which farmers the state over need every possible encouragement. In it there is promise of their salvation from "one-crop" slavery. It points the way to that agricultural diversification which means greater prosperity for the farmers of Georgia, North Carolina and every state in the South.

Moultrie is on this big job because she has established a packing house plant and sees the opportunity of making it a tremendous success through the organized co-operation of all interests affected. Happily the meat packing industry directly concerns every interest in the state—particularly the raisers of livestock, the railroads which get a haul on both livestock and packing house products, and the bankers and business men generally who get a direct benefit from the greater prosperity that the livestock industry is creating in Georgia.

Just as The Star often has emphasized, packing house markets promote the raising of livestock while promotion of the livestock industry guarantees the success of the packing house industry. It is intelligent promotion work that Moultrie is doing, and that live South Georgia town is furnishing an inspiration and example for other Southern communities which want to do things.

When we enlist and then mobilize we can make a movement move. That's all there is to it.

WORKING FOR THE COLONEL'S SUPPORT

The chief political interest at this time centers around Oyster Bay, whither the Progressive pilgrims go and whither the standpatters flock to influence Colonel Roosevelt to support Hughes for president.

After a conference on Monday night with Colonel Roosevelt, Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, declared that he believed the Colonel would support Hughes. He said the conversation centered around Hughes, and the standpat senator left Sagamore Hill with the impression that the Sage of Oyster Bay will soon declare for Hughes. He must have been sent by the Republican nominee himself, because Senator Lodge conferred with Mr. Hughes and Senator W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, before he went to see the Colonel, with whom he conferred for more than an hour.

Meanwhile others who went to see the Bull Moose were C. P. Connelly and A. J. Hopkins, of New Jersey, who are said to represent the "radical" wing of the Progressive party. Other Progressives present were E. A. VanValkenburg, William Flynn, and William Draper Lewis, of Pennsylvania; Everett Colby, of New Jersey; James R. Garfield, of Ohio; and O. K. Davis, secretary of the Progressive National committee. It is stated that Connelly and Hopkins, the Jersey radicals, urged Colonel Roosevelt to lead a third ticket, but it is said that the Colonel refused to commit himself.

Possibly the Colonel may support Hughes, but the Republican nominee will have to speak plainer than he has done so far. Maybe the go-betweens are trying to assure the Colonel that Hughes will talk right if he promises his support. Hughes has declared himself to be "an undiluted American," but that doesn't mean anything. It is an allegation which requires explanation in a brief. It satisfies the German-American voters, but it would be surprising if the Colonel would go so far as to be satisfied for the same reason. However, if Hughes speaks out like the Colonel demands that he shall, he will drive off the Germanic vote that has prematurely declared for Hughes.

A FLORIDA COUNTY'S $1,500,000 INVESTMENT

In The Star's Good Roads Convention Souvenir Number yesterday, reference was made to the tremendous good roads progress that has been made in Florida. Polk county, in that state, went on record June 1 as occupying the unique position of having made the biggest investment in good roads of any county in the United States. The voters ratified at the polls the proposition to issue $1,500,000 in bonds to be utilized in building a system of hard-surfaced roads all over the county.

It is stated by the Jacksonville Times-Union that this is the largest single bond issue for improved highways ever authorized by any one county, and that under Polk's road construction plan it calls for the largest contract for sheet asphalt ever given out in the world. That certainly puts Polk county on the map.

Polk not only came boldly to the front with that enormous bond issue for highways, but she carried on at the same time a successful educational campaign during a period of six weeks, in which the whole county heartily concurred.

The Manufacturers' Record, the Philadelphia Ledger, the Louisville Courier-Journal and many of the great papers of the South and North have freely given their editorial space to marvel at the progressive spirit of the citizens of Polk. That county's fame is a fixed fact, and there is no wonder that her roads and schools already are attracting homeseekers from abroad. When the settlers are looking for new homes, they want them where they can get the benefit of good roads and good schools.

It is believed that Polk county's $1,500,000 investment will attract more capital and so increase all values in the county that the increased tax values will pay all the bond interest as it becomes due and liquidate the bond debt when the county desires to pay it off. When we have faith in our counties we may confidently invest in them, for we can depend upon their resources to pay a good dividend on the largest kind of the right sort of investment.

NO MORE SHINGLE ROOFS FOR ATLANTA

On and after January 1, no kind of structure with a shingle roof will be permitted within the city limits of Atlanta. The ordinance governing the matter was passed last Monday by the city council after a warm debate. When the question was submitted, the ayes and nayes tied, so the mayor pro tem. broke the tie by voting for the ordinance. Of course, the purpose of this action on the part of the Atlanta council is to take precautions against such conflagrations as have visited Augusta, Nashville, Paris and other Southern cities.

The Atlanta ordinance provides that no wood shingles shall be used inside the city limits, after it becomes effective. It further provides that the present wood shingle roofs shall not be repaired more than 50 per cent of their total area if they become damaged through fire or have to be repaired for any other reason. If it becomes necessary to repair more than 50 per cent of a wood roof, it must then be replaced with a fire-proof roofing material of some sort coming under the provisions of the ordinance.

CURRENT COMMENT

If the politicians do not like the primary let them keep out of it.—Durham Herald.

We agree with Governor Craig, who pardoned him, that the verdict which found the father of three sets of twins guilty of manslaughter was a miscarriage of justice.—Raleigh Times.

As usual at this time of the year, old Tarheelia has her watery and avaricious lamps glued to the South Carolina pocketbook, and the hang of it is that she is going to get it.—Columbia State.

Hughes says he is "an out-and-out American." Something tells us that he is going to be a down-and-out American when the hosts of an unterrified and imperishable Democracy get through with him.—Columbia State

The Wilmington Star says: "Roosevelt used to be worried over the disconcerting silence of Hughes. He now has a chance to hand out an omnious silence that will erable Hughes to indulge in some perturbation himself." Roosevelt has no chance to do anything of the kind. Hhe wasn't built that way.—Jacksonville Times-Union.

The Good Roads Convention at Wrightsville Beach this week is one of importance. People long ago quit arguing about whether good roads pay, but not all of them have made up their minds to pay for the roads. In no other field is the principle of co-operation being applied to better effect than in this, for co-ordinated effort and skilful planning in advance increase the efficiency of road building efforts many-fold. The discussions that will be staged this week at Wrightsville, within sight and sound of the tumbling waves of the old Atlantic, should kindle anew the flame of enthusiasm in the delegates, and send them out to the State to labor with renewed zeal for the cause.—Charlotte Observer.

There was talk of attacking Hughes in the Democratic platform because, being a justice of the Supreme Court, he accepted a nomination for president. Wilson wouldn't allow it. He didn't want any mud-slinging in this campaign. That is greatly to his credit. This campaign is to be one of merit, an appeal to the people upon the issue of which side is calculated to give the better service to the country. It will be a great thing for this country if the coming campaign will set a pace for all future compaigns; and the mud-slinging and vicious personal attacks will be ruled out utterly. If that should be the result, it would be of greater importance to the country than the triumph of any policies proclaimed by either side. What a great thing it would be if we got politeness into our politics; if the scavenger and camp-followers were driven out and only gentlemen were allowed in! The idea of bruiser politics should go, and if Hughes and Wilson have their way, it will go. The way to purify politics is to rule out selfishness and trickiness of all.—Ohio State Journal.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND TO BE BIGGEST EVER RAISED

Treasurer Marsh Announces That $1,700,000 Will Be Subscribed.

Chicago, June 20.—Campaign fund of $1,700,000 will be raised by the Democratic party by popular subscription, according to an announcement made here today by W. W. Marsh, of Iowa, treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. "The biggest fund the Democratic party ever has had in previous campaigns was $1,100,000," he said. "Every member of the party will be expected to contribute something and no su mwill be too small."

MORE MECHANICS NEEDED

Secretary Daniels Inspects the New York Navy Yard.

New York, June 21.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels inspected the New York Navy Yard today and later expressed himself as much pleased with conditions at the plant, but said that the yard officers told him they were much in need of mechanics to work on the battleships building there. Between 300 and 400 additional men were wanted, he said.

Earlier in the day the Secretary had addresses the National Editorial Association. Late today he went to Orange, N. J., to dine with Thomas Edison.

It shall be my earnest endeavor to teach my own sex the value of health.—Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell.

The Superstition of Flat Foot.

PAINFUL feet are often incorrectly supposed to be either rheumatic or fallen arched.

Rheumatism does indeed obtain in many such cases, and then, oddly enough, local treatment, though it is helpful, does not achieve the cure, which has to come about through seeking and clearing up the primary focus or centre of the rheumatic infection. Such a centre, which may be in the nose, or the throat or a tooth cavity, or elsewhere in the body, is a granary of the specific germ of rheumatism—for this is an infectious disease; and from this granary the germs are distributed through the lymph and blood channels to various parts of the anatomy, but notoriously to the joints of the feet. And what is true here of rheumatism obtains also, especially in children, after grippe, tonsilitis, scarlet fever and the like.

Apart from rheumatism or other infectious process, painful feet are by no means due only to fallen arch. There may, rather, be foot strain—of the muscles and ligaments that are part of or are associated with the pedal mechanism. Other reasons for pain in the feet are hardening of those arteries whose office it is to supply the extremities with blood; chilblains, bunions, corns, hammer toes, neuralgia, tuberculosis of bone and joint (such as in children is called "cold abscess" or "white swelling") fractures, dislocations, and various malpositions of the foot due to faulty footwear, by reason of which the body's weight is borne on the outer side of the foot, or on the inner side of the foot, or horse's hoof fashion (pes equinus), or on the heel.

The weight of the body in standing and walking comes down on an elastic arch composed of twelve bones of different shapes, joined together by ligaments and connected with muscles. This complicated structure must bear at each step the entire bodily weight; and, instead of being left to perform its function naturally, as is the case with the knee, the elbow and other joints, the foot is encased from early childhood in a restraining and distorting leather covering—a covering that compresses and deforms the fore part of the foot. Here, then, is a process tending not only to distortion, but also to the great weakening of muscles attached to the foot, yet having their origin in and even above the knee joint. We will go further into this tomorrow.

STRAINED HEART.

R. L. H.: What are the symptoms of heart disease and the cure? Lately I am having sharp pains in my heart and trouble with my breathing. About two weeks ago I engaged in a game of ball. Up to that time I never had any trouble with my heart. But after the game it began to pain me, and since then I have had sharp pains intermittently.

Answer. Shortwindedness, palpitation, pain about the heart, weakness, giddiness, faintness, pallor. Cut out tea, coffee, alcohol, cigarettes; omit strenuous exercise until your symptoms have disappeared.

CLIMATE AND FOOD.

H. M. L. writes: Does any change in climate require change in food?

Answer: Yes. In cold climates the body requires more animal food (meat and especially fat) in order to maintain the bodily heat. In hot climates a dietary consisting in the main of fruits and vegetables is more suitable. Fermented and distilled liquors should be avoided both in tropics and in the Arctics and Anarctics.

MEAT INSPECTION.

Answer to F. H. G.: Meat should be inspected within 24 hours after the animal has been killed. The following points should be made in a thorough inspection: The quantity and the character of the fat, its color and consistency; the condition of the flesh and bone marrow; signs of infectious diseases in the lungs, liver or kidneys, especially looking for tuberculosis. The flesh should also be examined under the microscope for germs or animal parasites, especially trichinae. When possible storage and refrigerator plants should also be investigated.

This column is devoted to disease prevention; to physical and mental hygiene; to domestic, industrial and public sanitation; to the promotion of health; efficiency and long life. The latest developments in medical science will be presented. Questions of general interest will be answered here, space permitting—others by mail if stamped return envelope is enclosed. Requests for personal diagnosis or treatment cannot, however, be considered in any way.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

OFFICERS ARE ELECTED BY THE VETERINARIANS

Following Delightful Banquet at Seashore Hotel Last Night.

Addresses Made by Dr. A. T. Kinsley, of Kansas City, and Others—Fourteen Pass Examinations of the State Board.

Following a very delightful banquet at the Seashore Hotel at Wrightsville Beach last night at which addresses were made by President A. T. Kinley, of the Kansas City Veterinary College, and others, the North Carolina Veterinary Association, which met at the beach yesterday for its 37th annual convention, elected officers for the ensuing year. Announcement was made yesterday that 14 of the 17 applicants for license to practice their profession passed the examinations of the State Board of Examiners which were held on Tuesday of this week.

Following are the officers who were elected for the ensuing year late last night:

President—Dr. R. H. Parker, of Gastonia.

First Vice President—Dr. C. L. Cruse, of Statesville.

Second Vice President—Dr. J. I. Neal, of Sanford.

Secretary and Treasurer—Dr. J. P. Spoon, of Burlington.

Dr. J. I. Handley, of Charlotte, retiring president of the association, was recommended to the governor for appointment to the Board of Examiners. Dr. T. B. Carroll, of Wilmington, president of the Board of Examiners, announced yesterday as having passed successfully their examination for license to practice: S. A. Alexander, Matthews; A. E. Bannock, Lexington; C. C. Cox, Richmond; W. D. Faison, Faison; L. J. Faulhaber and V. H. Finck, Elizabeth City; D. S. Harper, Snow Hill; A. H. Kerr, Clinton; N. M. Lynn, Durham; E. M. Martin, Albemarle; S. A. Nathan, New Bern; P. S. Phillips, Ingalls; H. J. Rollins, Rockingham; E. P. Stanton, Parkton.

The banquet last evening in the dining hall of the Seashore Hotel was a most enjoyable affair and was attended by between 40 and 50 veterinary surgeons who are attending the sessions of the convention. Dr. L. F. Koonce, of Charlotte, was toastmaster. Dr. A. T. Kinsley, president of the Kansas City Veterinary College, and Mr. L. A. Niven, editor of Southern Farming, of Atlanta, Ga., made instructive and interesting addresses. Others who spoke included Dr. A. E. Brannock and Dr. Knapp, of Raleigh.

About 30 of the delegates went out on a fishing trip yesterday morning and on account of a calm were unable to get back to the hotel until the afternoon. However, the convention was called to order by Dr. J. I. Handley, the president, and after a short session adjourned until last night. The delegates are being entertained in splendid style by Capt. Edgar L. Hinton and his efficient corps of assistants and are enjoying the recreations of the beach very much.

At the morning session today there will be addresses by Dr. Charles T. Nesbitt, county health officer of New Hanover; Dr. W. A. Hornaday, of Greensboro; Dr. J. I. Neal, of Sanford; Dr. Adam Fisher, of Charlotte; Mr. L. A. Niven, of Atlanta, and a number of other visiting delegates. The place for the next meeting will also be named at this meeting.

IMPROVEMENT ELECTION RESULT STILL IN DOUBT

Progress is Made by Board in Purging Registration Books.

At a meeting of the City Election Board held yesterday morning for the purpose of hearing the explanations of citizens who either voted or registered at the recent primary in which city improvement propositions were voted upon and whose right to vote has been questioned by reason of their alleged failure to pay their poll tax, 74 citizens gave their explanation either in person or in writing. Of this number 35 proved that they were qualified to register, although only 26 out of the 35 voted.

Thirty-four of those who appeared were held to be disqualified, and 13 of this number voted. One was deducted for having committed a felony and not having yet been restored to citizenship. This reduced the registration as it appears on the books to 2,885.

The report of the special committee appointed several days ago to go over the registration books showed that 379 persons on the books had failed to pay their poll tax. Of this number only 74 as mentioned above, have appeared before the board to show that they had paid their poll tax in New Hanover county or elsewhere or give other legal excuse for non-payment of this tax, which is a prerequisite to registration.

The decision of the board as to whether any of the improvement propositions carried at the polls will have to await further consideration of the matter, as it is announced that another session will be held today, when the registration probe will be continued.

FIRST COTTON BLOOMS.

One From Robeson and One from New Hanover Reported Yesterday.

The Star has received the first cotton bloom of the season from Mr. C. H. Odom, who farms near McDonald, in Robeson county, this having been plucked Saturday from a field of something over 20 acres, which Mr. Odom planted the last days of March and which is now an average of knee high, the field, he says, being white with blooms now.

New Hanover comes second with a bloom plucked by Mr. J. B. Moore, who has charge of the farm of Mr. D. L. Gore, at Oak Hill plantation, this county. Mr. Moore plucked seven blooms from the field yesterday, the plants being extraordinarily fine.

STATE PHARMACISTS GO TO ASHEVILLE NEXT

Visiting Druggists Given Automobile Ride Yesterday Afternoon

Traveling Men's Auxiliary Elects Officers for Ensuing Year—Convention Closes This Morning—Boat Ride.

The next convention of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, which is now in session at the Oceanic Hotel at Wrightsville Beach, will be held in Asheville, the mountain city having won by a large majority over Raleigh and other competing cities.

The morning session of the association yesterday was devoted to the reading of papers on technical subjects and yesterday afternoon the visiting delegates were taken for a delightful automobile trip over Wilmington and New Hanover county. The convention will close this morning with the election of officers.

At a meeting of the Traveling Men's Auxiliary yesterday afternoon officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mr. Lambert Kuhn, of Charlotte, salesman for Robert H. Green & Son, of Philadelphia, Pa.; vice-president, Mr. H. T. Kershaw, of Baltimore, salesman Nuph Bros., of that city; secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. W. Horne, a prominent retail druggist of Fayetteville.

The visiting druggists, more than a hundred in number, will be the guests of the Traveling Men's Auxiliary on a trip out to sea this afternoon. The auxiliary is composed of traveling men, who travel for firms handling drug supplies.

After going over the city yesterday afternooon, the hundred delegates were taken for a trip over the loop and then back to Wrightsville, where they boarded cars for the beach. The visiting druggists stopped en route on the automobile ride at the plant of the Shepard Chemical Company, in East Wilmington, and made an inspection of the place. Delicious punch was served, through the courtesy of the officers of the company.

In addition to the election of officers and the reports of committees this morning, there will be a number of papers read at the session today, including the following:

"Papers and Queries"—Efficiency in the Drug Store, by E. R. V. Harrison, Greensboro, N. C.

Why I Am a Member of the N. C. P., by C. P. Greyer, Morganton, N. C.

What Constitutes Good Prescription Service, by P. A. Lee, Dunn, N. C.

LOCAL ROTARIANS PLAN TO ATTEND NATIONAL MEETING

Watermelon-Eeating Contest Will be One of Entertainment Features.

Members of the Wilmington Rotary Clu bare looking forward with much interest to the approaching national convention of their organization to be held in Cincinnati next Month.

Cincinnati, and the members of the club here, are making extensive preparations for the extertainment of the convention. One of the unusual features o fthis entertainment will be a watermelon-eating contest. The purpose of this contest will be to settle for once and all time the relative merits of the Georgia and Texas melons. Those from Georgia will be furnished by the Atlanta Rotarians, and will be served by some of Georgia's prettiest girls. This watermelon contest, it is whispered, is really the reason why so many members of the Wilmington club are planning to go to Cincinati next month.

JUDGE LYON IS NAMED BY GOV. CRAIG TO HOLD COURT

Will Preside Over New Hanover Criminal Court Next Week.

Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethtown, of the Fourth Judicial District, has been designated by Governor Locke Craig to preside over the criminal term of Superior Court for New Hanover county which will convene at Wilmington next Monday morning for the trial foial of criminal cases.

The above announcement was contained in a telegram received yesterday morning by Major W. N. Harriss from Executive Secretary M. F. Jones of Raleigh.

Governor Craig was recently requested by the local bar to name a special judge to preside over the next criminal term of court here, when it was learned that Judge R. B. Peebles, of Jackson, who was scheduled to preside was very ill at a hospital in Norfolk; and would probably not be able to do so.

RECORDER GIVES NEGRESS SIX MONTHS AT COUNTY FARM

Was Charged With Theft of Burial Shroud of Aged Woman.

At yesterday morning's session of the Recorder's court, the only defendant to face the Recorder was Hester Boykin, colored, who was given six months at the county farm on the charge of the theft of a burial shroud and other artcles of value from Eliza Sulks, colored, 80 years old.

The stolen articles were identified by Eliza, who testified that, "while I wuz gone somebody done took all the things I wuz gwine to be laid out in." Some of the property was found at the defendant's house, it was stated by witnesses.

Sepa Grotto Chartered.

Mr. A. S. Holden, secretary of the local Sepa Grotto, yesterday received a telegram from Mr. Paul B. Bell, representing Monarch C. D. Boyd, of the local body at the meeting of the Supreme Council of the Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, now in session at Detroit, Mich.; stating that the local grotto has been granted a charter and that the number is 7[illegible]. It was also stated in the telegram that the next meeting of the Supreme Council will be held in Washington, D. C.

FEWER ARRESTS IN CITY DURING THE PAST YEAR

Chief of Police Williams Submits Annual Report to Council.

Steady Decrease in Drunkenness for Year—Burglaries Presented Serious Problem—Traffic Regulations Needed.

The total number of arrests made by the Wilmington police force during the past fiscal year, ended June 1, was 24 less than for the preceding year, according to the annual report of Chief of Police N. J. Williams, which was submitted to City Council at its regular session yesterday. There were only 126 arrests made for drunkenness, or less than half the number for the preceding year, and Chief Williams declares that the ratio is far below that for any other city the size of Wilmington. The police force was confronted during the past year with an unprecedented number of larcenies, which presented a serious problem.

Chief Williams calls attention to the need of better traffic regulations, particularly as to the parking of automobiles in the principal streets of the city but refrains from making any recommendation, pointing out that no action was taken on the suggestions made by him a year ago. Councilman J. M. Hall, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, suggested that the traffic regulations be revised and it was decided to make this subject a special order of business at the regular weekly meeting on Wednesday, July 5, and that the public be invited to make suggestions in the meantime. Councilman Hall suggested that the parking of automobiles be prohibited on Princess between Third and Front streets and on Front between Chestnut and Market streets between the hours of 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. and that provision be made for parking machines in the center of Market from Third to Front streets.

Chief Williams' report, as submitted to Council, is as follows:

"I hereby submit my annual report for your consideration as follows:

"The number of arrests for all causes for the year is 24 less than for the preceding year. For violation of the prohibition law we made 64 arrests against 110 the year before. For drunkenness we made 126 arrests against 288 the year preceding. You can readily see that drunkenness has steadily decreased each year until the average is just slightly over 10 a month. This ratio is far below that for any city near the size of Wilmington in this State. I doubt that any city of our population in the country has as good record as that. The only increase we have had the last year in arrests has been for larveny. We had 243 arrests for this offense against 153 the year before. This has been the one crime which has given our department much trouble during the year. We have put forth every effort possible to check such violations. While we have arrested 243 charged with larceny of all degrees we have not stopped the seemingly determined effort of the lower class of colored people to commit this crime. Of the 243 arrests for larceny 226 were colored people.

"We have a small force considering the amount of territory we have to patrol. The city limits have been extended and the territory to be covered now is out of all proportion to our force. Our men have had the hardest year's work of any in my experience. We have had an epidemic of burglaries and petty larcenies which have covered the greater part of the year. We have worked har dto try and cope with the situation. The one thing most needed by the department is co-operation of the public. The department is maintained by taxpayers. It is their duty to first see that the police force is being maintained and conducted on the highest possible basis of efficiency and if this is found to be the condition, it would seem that the entire community should try and uphold the police in their effort to stamp out crime and maintain order.

"Recently I had the pleasure of attending the National Convention of Chiefs of Police at Newark, N. J. I feel that I was greatly benefited by seeing and hearing the deliberations of that great body of peace officers. This organization was started about five years ago. While it is yet in its infancy, great good has been accomplished through the efforts of these officers in the different cities they represent. In a moral way they advocate the Golden Rule insofar as the first offense is concerned. They make due and rigid investigation of parties arrested the first time. They always display a lenient spirit and lend a helping hand in every possible way to try and get the offender back on the right road. They advocate the breaking up of all places that offer inducements to young people to become lawbreakers, thereby cutting off new recruits in the commission of crime. This does not apply, however, to hardened criminals, who would not, in all probability, be benefited by leniency and toward whom extension of mercy would lessen the due protection to which society is entitled.

"Traffic regulations in most of the cities which I visited are not giving satisfaction. Many municipalties are now considerng changes in their ordinances. It seems that traffic regulations have to be adopted in different cities to suit particular needs. All the points I visited have ordinances prohibiting vehicles of every description from beng parked on the principal streets, especially in the shopping districts. I will make no recommendation along this line, just now, as the suggestions I made a year ago were not acted on.

"Our force is in good, healthy condition, as a whole and the men are doing excellent work. In concluding this report I desire to thank the Mayor and Council for their co-operation, and the many kindnesses shown our department during the year, in appreciation

FOLLY TO ALLOW GOOD ROADS TO DETERIORATE

Mr. M. S. Willard Emphasizes Importance of Maintenance.

Member of New Hanover Board of Commissioners and Former Chairman Discusses Highway Building at Convention.

The most important thing to get into the minds of those concerned in the building of good roads is the one fact that there is no such thing as a permanent road, said Mr. Martin S. Willard, former chairman and at present a member of the Board of County Commissioners of New Hanover, in a very interesting address at the North Carolina Good Roads Convention at Wrightsville Beach yesterday afternoon. Mr. Willard has practiced the doctrine he preaches and to him is due much of the credit for the splendid system of highways in New Hanover. His address was heard with the closest attention by the visitors. He spoke in part as folows:

"The most important thing to get into the minds of those who are concerned in the building of good roads is the one fact that there is no such thing as a permanent road. Some road engineer answered when asked how soon it would be necessary to commence repairing a good road after it was finished, 'The next day.' There is hardly a day in the year when any specified mile of road couldn't have something done on it to advantage. It may be the cleaning of the ditches, the cutting of weeds alongside, the catching up of some raveled-out edge or the patching of some small hole. But the stitch in time saves the other nine in road building just as effectually as it does in the patching of a partly worn garment.

"I do not understand that I am expected to tell you the actual methods of maintaining roads for that can only be done in a satisfactory manner by an engineer familiar with the particular type of road being repaired or maintained, but to try to impress upon you as forcibly as I can the utter foolishness of making a large investment of money in good roads and then permitting them to go to pieces without intelligent and sufficient methods being employed to keep them in good condition. The property owner who will permit his dwelling to depreciate for lack of paint, for want of a few shingles, for need of new glass in the windows is a perfect Solomon compared to the official who will permit the constant use of an improved road with no effort to replace the daily wear and tear caused by the traffic of today. Methods of this sort are not only foolish but are extravagant and cannot long be indulged in unless the community has more money than it knows what to do with and the citizens are content to pay a much greater amount in taxes than is necessary. If the community interests were managed as the interests of a large corporation the public official who neglected to safeguard and preserve the public investment in good roads would be without employment in a very short time. Why can not the county officials learn a valuable lesson on this subject from the large railroad corporations? Do you suppose the Atlantic Coast Line or the Seaboard Air Line would allow any section of its road to get in such condition that it would almost have to be rebuilt? It is by continual oversight and work that their great investments are preserved in proper condition and the section master who permitted his stretch of road to get in bad condition would soon be seeking other work.

"It would be easy to give figures to show the actual loss in dollars to a community over a period of years by a policy which neglects the improved roads, but it is so evident that it does not need a mathematical demonstration. It is not so easy, however, to give figures which show the actual loss in dollars to the public caused by damage to vehicles and by loss of time to those who use the bad roads, by depreciation in values and the loss of new investors in the community, but that this is very real loss should be just as evident to any one who thinks seriously about it. We all know how difficult it usually is to persuade the farmers to vote for a bond issue for good roads or to give their approval to an increase in a road tax and it occurs to me that possibly their opposition had been born of observation of the usual methods of road administration. And I am not sure but the farmers have been nearer right than some of us thought, for I do not hesitate for a moment to say that in my opinion it would have been much better never to have built hundreds of miles of roads which have been constructed only to be permitted to go to pieces, the only reminder of them being in the shape of a burdensome bond issue.

"It may be, however, that such ways were unavoidable in the early years of the agitation for good roads. Certainly from the sad experience of those communities which at great expense have been called upon to reconstruct roads which have cost great sums of money wisdom should come to us of this day so that the same sad experience may not be repeated. We have had the experience in our county ,but we feel that we have gained the necessary wisdom.

"And, therefore, I am very positive in the belief that unless a county or community can provide yearly a fund which will thoroughly maintain its roads in their original condition it is much better to attempt nothing more than the simple construction of soil roads. If even this is done properly there will be great improvement in conditions for it will call for actual permanent work, which can never be lost by neglect. I mean the cost of straightening, widening, grading, and ditching the roads. The work of surfacing can be done later when the taxpayers have been educated to the importance and necessity of proper supervision and yearly expenditures for maintenance.

"I believe we have learned the lesson in New Hanover county and for the past four years have made an earnest effort to preserve the investment we have made in good roads. It has cost something to do this, but we believe the citizens and tax-payers approve what we have done."

RESINOL SOAP

a friend to tender skins
Many ill-made toilet soaps contain free alkali, a harsh chemical which tends to dry and injure the skin or hair. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added the soothing, healing Resinol medication, which doctors have used for over 20 years in treating skin troubles. Thus it comforts tender skins, and helps nature clear the complexion and keep the hair rich, lustrous and free from dandruff. Sold at all druggists' and toilet counters.

WILMINGTON MAN WEDS A FAYETTEVILLE YOUNG LADY

Fayetteville, N. C., June 21.—Mr. J. M. Schwartz, of Wilmington, and Miss Elizabeth Herr, of Fayetteville, were the contracting parties in a pretty wedding celebrated here last night, in the Marsh-McKethan Hall, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion in palms and ferns, the ceremony being performed by Rabbi Mayerburg, of Goldsboro, assisted by Rabbi Davidow, of Fayetteville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Kramer.

The bride, gowned in white taffeta and Georgette crepe, carrying a Bible of white ivory and a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, entered with Mrs. Schwartz, of Wilmington, and Mrs. M. Walman, of Goldsboro, and was met at the altar by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Sam Herr, of St. Mary's, Pa., a brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a banquet was served to one hundred guests. One of the features during the feast was a lecture by Rabbi Mayerburg on the war sufferers, who were remembered in the festivities and a collection, which netted a neat sum, was taken and will be sent abroad. Dr. Mayerburg also explained the meaning of marriage.

Mayor McNeill in an eloquent manner congratulated the bride and groom, and Mr. R .P. Bolton, register of deeds, gracefully presented them with the marriage license.

Before and after the marriage and during the banquet delightful music was rendered by Messrs. J. H. Eggleston and E .L. Remsburg, with Miss Bessie Tomlinson as accompanist. During the remainder of the evening Mrs. K. Stein and Mrs. H. B. Goldstein entertained the guests with sweet music.

The out-of-town guests were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz, of Wilmington; Mr. H. L. Rulnick, of Wilmington; Mrs. Philip Cohen, of Beaufort, S. C.; Mr. David Katzoff, Beaufort, S. C.; Mr. Chas. Davis, Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. Walman, Goldsboro; Misses Ada and Elizabeth Walman, Goldsboro; Rabbi Mayerburg, Goldsboro; Mr. and Mrs. M. L .Davis, Selma; Mrs. H. C. Kreger, of Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Audrey Kreger, Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. Joe Davis, Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Ann Benjamin, Philadelphia; Miss Eva Lapin, of Norfolk, Va.; Mr. Harry Hamil Farb, Baltimore; Mr. Claff, of Baltimore; Miss Anne Mower, of Goldsboro; Mr. Henry Mower, of Goldsboro; Mr. Z. Saleeby, of Dillon, S. C.

The city guests were: Mayor J. D. McNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stein, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fleishman, Mr. and Mrs. K. Stein, Mr. G. C. Trice, Mr. and Mrs John Harrington, Mr. and and Mrs. J. H. Eggleston, Mr. R. P. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridge, Miss Lila Buie, Mrs. F. B. Hammond, Mr. M. Lacob, Mr. E. S. Saleeby, Mr. T. S. Saleeby, Mr Ed Fleishman, Mr. Charles Solomon, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Jackson, Mr and Mrs. Ed Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kruntzberg, Dr Julius Shaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz leave tonight on a bridal trip to Ocean View, Baltimore and Atlantic City. They will make their future home in Fayetteville.

Col. W. B. Fort, of Pikeville, is one of the prominent guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Spoon, of Burlington, are among yesterday's arrivals at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. Osmond Barringer and Dr. John I. Handley, of Charlotte, and Mr. D. G. Worth, of Davidson, are guests at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Land and three daughters, Misses Virginia, Augusta and Rebecca, of Hamlet, are spending several weeks at the Hanover Inn.

Mr. W. C. Maddox, special road commissioner of Chatham county, and Messrs. W. B. Kiker and W. M. Thompson, of Durham, arrived yesterday at the beach to attend the Good Roads Convention.

Dr. J. E. Hart and Messrs. R. G. Austin and T. C. Coxe, members of the board of Commissioners of Anson county and Messrs. U. B. Blalock and Adam Lockhart, all of Wadesboro, are guests at the Seashore Hotel. They came down to attend the Good Roads Convention.

Mr. Edward L. Cowles, feature writer for the Charlotte Observer, is covering the Good Roads Convention for his paper. Mr. Cowles is a newcomer to North Carolina but is a writer of ability and his articles in the Charlotte Observer have attracted wide attention.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Mrs. S. B. Alexander, Jr., and daughter, Miss Mary Brevard Alexander, and Miss Julia Alexander will leave Saturday morning, for a stay at Wrightsville beach.—Mr. and Mrs. George P. Wadsworth and children will leave the last of the week for a trip to Wrightsville Beach. Later in the summer they will go to Blowing Rock."

It was announced recently that the Clyde Line Steamship Company had made a special round trip rate from New York to Wilmington and return during the summer months of $21.50. A tentative rate of this kind was made on April 20th, Mr. C. J. Becker, the local agent here states, but on April 20th the rate was changed back to the old basis of $24 for the round trip which includes state room and meals on board the ship.

Among the arrivals at the Hanover Inn were: L. L. Walker, Burgaw; L. M. Olive, T. Page and son, D. M. Rogers, Owen Wood and T. J. Noblin, Barnesville; J. F. Robinson, New Bern; C. J .Heath, Vanceboro; J. E. and E. W. Dougherty, New Bern; E. F. Hughes, New Bern; W. A. Costin and W. G. Newell, Council's; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Woody, Elizabeth City; N. B. Mills, Statesville; J. C. Homer, Charlotte.

Arrivals at the Seashore Hotel yesterday included the following: A. C. Jones, High Point; Dr. A. T. Kinsley, Kansas City, Mo.; A. P. Gilbert, Durham; H. B. F. Jervis, Columbia, S. C.; T. D. Owen, Raleigh; H. C. Troutt, Salisbury; B. B. Flowe and H. P. Flowe, of Clinton; J. H. Parker, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Royal, Salemburg; J. A. Turlington, Salemburg; Oscar Futrell, Rose Hill; G. A. Monk, Goldsboro; W. T. Sanders, Wendell; W. A. Hornaday, Greensboro; U. M. Thayer, Eldorado; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cruse, Statesville; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Sikes, Salemburg; J. F. Weeks, D. V. S., Goldsboro; H. J. Rollins, Rockingham; Ed S. Phillips, Spruce Pine; E. M. Martin, Abbeville; W. N. Pinkston and S. K. Harris, Wadesboro; E. J. Britt, Lumberton; J. R. Davis, Farmville; T. S. Parker and W. L. Mann, Albemarle.

The athletic events which will be given at the Oceanic hotel this afternoon at 5 o'clock will include several novel stunts and picturesque athletics performances. While the affair is given under the auspices of the Wilmington Y. M. C. A., the visiting delegates to the Good Roads Convention will be expected to take part. The first event will be a "Serpentine Dance" by the delegates, led by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt. There will be a 50-yard dash for boys under 110 pounds and a 50-yard dash for the delegates, suitable prizes to be given to each case. Other events will include the wheelbarrow race for boys and the running broad jump for the delegates, a sack race for boys and the tug of war by the visiting delegates against the New Hanover delegates. Mr. J. B. Huntington, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will be referee; Mr. J. P. Seitters will be marshall and Mr. Fowler Morrison will be starter. The judges will be selected from among the delegates.

B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION MEETS HERE TONIGHT

Session To Be Held at The First Baptist Church

Many Prominent Speakers on Programme for Seventh Annual Meeting—More Than 400 Delegates Are Expected.

Many speakers prominent in the Baptist denomination from all parts of the State will address the seventh annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Unions of North Carolina, which meets tonight at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist church in Wilmington for sessions which will continue through Sunday afternoon. Final plans for the entertainment of the delegates here have been made by the entertainment committee, of which Mr. Coy Hewett, is chairman.

Those who have had the preliminary arrangements in charge express the opinion that the attendance will be greater than at any previous meeting of the Unions. More than 400 delegates from various sections of the State are expected to attend and participate in the proceedings of the convention. The visitors began arriving last night, but the larger number are expected today.

Among the prominent speakers who are on the programme for addresses during the convention are the following: Rev. Dr. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston; President E. Walter Sikes, of Coker College, Hartsville, S. C.; Rev. J. T. Riddick, of Durham; Rev. Lee McB. White, of Monroe; Mr. E. R. Carroll, of Raleigh; Secretary Arthur Flake, of Baldwyn, Miss., and Mr. Kyle M. Yates, of Wake Forest College.

"Utilizing All Our Baptist Young People," will be the subject of Rev. Mr. Riddick's address tonight. He is one of the leading pastors of Durham and is a speaker of engaging personality. Secretary Flake, who has secretarial charge of the Sunday School Board work east of the Mississippi, will also speak tonight. The public is invited to attend the sessions of the convention.

RECRUITS FOR SECOND REGIMENT ARE BEING SOUGHT HERE

Rev. J. N. Robeson, of Goldsboro, Chaplain Here to Get Uniform.

Captain Bain, of Goldsboro, commander of Company D, Second North Carolina infantry, who recently sent word that any members of the W. L. I. who wished to transfer to his company in order to participate in the mobilization of the State troops could be accommodated, has extended his invitation to include any young men of Wilmington who wish to enlist. In common with all the rest of the State militia, except the Coast Artillery companies, Captain Bain's men will be at Morehead City the latter part of this city or early next week.

Lieut. W. P. Monroe, of the commissary and quartermaster department of the Second Regiment, of this city; received the following telegram from Captain Bain yesterday morning: "We can handle men who wish to enlist in the Second Regiment. See if you can get some good ones. Send them up. Wire how many and what train."

Rev. J. M. Robeson, of Goldsboro; rector of the Episcopal church o fthat place, was in Wilmington yesterday, He was recently appointed chaplain of the Second Regiment to succeed Rev. J. N. Harlins, who has served for the past 40 years and who retired on account of his advanced age and ill health. Rev. Mr. Robeson will go to Fort Caswell today to be outfitted with the necessary uniforms and will join his regiment later at Morehead City.

—Senator Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, and E. F. McCulloch, Esq., of Bladen, were among the visitors here yesterday, mixing with the good roads delegates.

BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS

Adopt Resolutions of Regret That Their Colleague, Col. Metts, May be Called to Colors.

At a meeting of the local Board of Underwriters held yesterday morning, a resolution was adopted expressing regret that their colleague, Lieut. Col. J. VanB. Metts, of the Second North Carolina regiment, N. C. N. G., had received orders to be ready to report for duty at Morehead City, and offering the co-operation and assistance of the members of the board in the conduct of his insurance business during Colonel Metts' absence from the city, in the event that should he be called to mobilize with his regiment. The text of the resolution reads as follows:

"Resolved, That this board learns with regret that our brother agent, J. VanB. Metts, has been notified by the President of these United States of his call to arms, and that this board, to a man, assures Colonel Metts of their assistance and co-operation in any matters pertaining to the operation of his office or business of insurance during the term of his enforced absence from this city, living up to the full application of the spirit as well as the text of the Golden Rule.

"S. M. BOATWRIGHT, Secy."

In his reply, Colonel Metts expresses his appreciation of the good will manifested by the members of the board in offering to assist in the care of his business in the event that he should be called upon to join his regiment. His letter reads in part as follows:

"I have always been aware of the friendliness which exists among the insurance agents of Wilmington, as competitors, but must say that I know of no other set of competitors in any line of business who feel so close to each other that they would go so far as you gentlemen have in the expression contained in your resolution.

"Believing that Mr. Kelley is capable of handling the affairs of the office, having shown his ability during his several years' connection with me, and being assured of the moral support of you gentlemen, I am satisfied to leave the office."

of which we pledge our best efforts during the approaching 12 months."

In connection with the annual report, Chief Williams submitted a statistical report showing that the total number of arrests made for the year was 1,840, of which 451 were write and 1,389 were colored. YESTERDAY WAS LONGEST DAY OF PRESENT YEAR

Daylight Between Sunrise and Sunset Was 14 Hours and 26 Minutes.

Yesterday was the longest day of the year, but as the days have been gradually getting longer ever since December 21 of last year the difference in its length and that of the day which immediately preceded it was scarcely noticeable. By length, of day, of day, of course, time from sunrise to sunset is meant. Day and night only consumed the orthodox 34 hours.

There were 14 hours and 26 minutes of daylight yesterday, but each day from now on until December 21, will get shorter. The course of the sun yesterday was directly over the Tropic of Cancer and this is the cause of the extreme length of the day. On December 21, the sun is above the Tropic of Capricorn, which causes a short period of daylight. The sun rose at 5:00 a. m. and sets at 7:26 p. m.

COLORED BOY DROWNED

Yesterday Afternoon in Rock Quarry Pond Near Bellevue.

Theodore Dodd, colored, nine years old, son of Frank Dodd, an employe of the Standard Oil Company, who lives at No. 512 Wood street, was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock in the small pond at the city rock quarry near Bellevue cemetery.

The boy's body was recovered later in the afternoon by Mr. McIver, a white man, after parties had been dragging for it for some time.

Coroner A. S. Holden was notified and after examining the body gave accidental drowning as the cause of the boy's death. The body was removed to the parents' home on Wood street. At the time the drowning occurred, the youngster was in swimming with two playmates and got beyond his depth.

COL. E. W. VAN C. LUCAS ORDERED TO THE COLORS

Former Wilmingtonian Goes With His Regiment to Camp Whitman in New York.

Friends of Lieut. Col. E. W. Van C. Lucas, formerly of Wilmington, will be interested in learning that he has been ordered with his regiment to Camp Whitman in New York state in response to the recent order of President Wilson for the National Guard to mobilize.

Colonel Lucas has taken with him as mascot his ten-year-old son, John Daniel Lucas, and is awaiting orders to be sent to Mexico.

WANTS TO OPEN ON SUNDAY

City Council Refuses to Grant Restaurant License to United Cigar Store for This Reason.

"We want to comply with the law and intend to do so but we also want a square deal and feel that we should have it," said Mr. C. M. Bouvier, superintendent of the United Cigar Stores Company for the Southern Division, yesterday in making application to City Council for a restaurant license for the branch store which is operated by his company in Wilmington. Upon the admission made by Mr. Bouvier that he would not care to have the license if he could not sell soft drinks and cigars on Sunday, Council refused to grant the license.

Mr. Bouvier made the point very clear that he only wanted to be accorded the same treatment as given other similar concerns in the city and was very frank in stating that he was applying for the restaurant license in order that he might be able to sell soft drinks and cigars on Sunday. His company had come to Wilmington to conduct a business, he said, and it was manifestly a disadvantage to them to be subject to regulations that gave other similar enterprises a right to sell on Sunday while they could not. He cited Charlotte as an example where no cigars or soft drinks are sold on Sunday and stated that the United Cigar store sold a great many cigars on Saturday as a consequence. They had no desire to open in that city on Sunday because none of the other stores in the city were open. He mentioned other cities in which the sale of soft drinks is prohibited on Sunday while in still others a sale of cigars is forbidden but soft drinks may be sold.

Councilman McCaig declared that he wasn't a fanatic on the subject but he felt that a line should be drawn somewhere. He did not think that the license should be granted. Councilmen Bradshaw and Hall also opposed the granting of the license. Councilman Jones, who was called to the chair in the absence of Mayor Moore and Mayor Pro Tem Merritt, put the question and the granting of the license was refused.

Mr. J. Irving Bear, who is renting agent and part owner of the building at the corner of Front and Princess streets, was present, having come with Mr. Bouvier. Mr. Bear stated that he was not present to say anything but had simply come with Mr. Bouvier. He felt that the same treatment should be given to all the concerns in the city. As to the moral side of the question he did not think that this was involved in the request. Mr. Bouvier explained that Mr. Bear had not in any way had anything to do with the proposed opening on Sunday nor had he suggested it but had simply come with hi min order that he would have no difficulty in finding the right place.

Mr. C .C. Covington, who was present, when requested if he had anything to say, replied that he was there simply to do anything he could to protect the Holy Sabbath. He felt that all Sunday traffic should be eliminated. Mr. R. F. Warren, a well known cigar dealer, was present also but did not have anything to say. However, Mr. Warren and other cigar dealers in the city would doubtless insist on being permitted to keep their places open on Sunday, should this privilege be granted to the United Cigar Store.

There is no city regulation prohibiting the sale of goods on Sunday although there is a State law on the subject. Drug stores, restaurants and cafes are kept open in Wilmington and practically all of them sell cigars and many of them operate soft drink stands. The druggists say that they have to keep their prescription department open on Sunday and that the income from this is so small that it necessitates their selling other stuff in order to make expenses. Restaurant keepers state that their patrons when they come for something to eat also request soft drinks and cigars and that it would be a great hardship on them to refuse to serve them.

THEATRICAL

Today at the Grand the most notable screen production ever put on there will be presented, Clara Kimball Young, the screen actress adored by millions in the greatest triumph of her career, starring in the leading role of that dynamic Broadway stage thunderbolt, "The Yellow Passport," a photo play of startling power picturing with vivid fidelity and realism the grim symbolism of the saffron emblem of shame, a blindingly brilliant masterpiece of thrills, pathos, romance, intrigue, mystery, revenge, black hatred and tender love, produced by the master craftsman, Edwin August.

Richness of scenic environment and a crescendo of startlingly dramatic episodes, reaching a gigantic climax, mark "The Yellow Passport," depicting the persecution of a beautiful and noble-spirited girl by the Russian secret police, in which the heroine, Sonia, played by Clara Kimball Young, is driven from Russia by the inexorable enmity of a leader of the dread Black Hundred, coming to America only to find the long arm of her foe stretched across the sea in a final fierce effort to destroy her life's happiness.

Clara Kimball Young is surrounded by a brilliant array of talent in this super-production, which includes Alec B. Frances, Edwin August, Florence Hackett, Robert Cummings and John Sainpolis. It is the most brilliant offering ever presented on the screen at the Grand and should draw capacity houses.

"Battle Cry of Peace"

Even while the first performance of that great spectacle, "The Battle Cry of Peace," was being presented at the Royal Theatre yesterday, a telegram was received by Capt. W. P. Monroe from Colonel Bain, of the Goldsboro company, North Carolina National Guard, asking that he be sent as many young men for enlistment as cared to go, that he could use a good number to recruit his company to war strength before proceeding to mobilization headquarters.

Thus was scored another point in favor of "The Battle Cry of Peace," the one great aim of which is to arouse Americans to a state of preparedness and to a firmer realization of their strict accountability to their government in time of need. And it would not be strange did this spectacle be the means of sending many Wilmingtonians to do their duty.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" played to large houses all day yesterday and today's crowds will undoubtedly be even larger. It is one of those great spectacles which is advertised by "word of mouth" after the first performance in any city. The crowds will undoubtedly reach the capacity mark at this evening's performances, and throughout tomorrow, which will conclude the final engagement of this marvelous spectacle in Wilmington.

Attention is called to change of hours of performance for today and tomorrow.

Today at the Bijou.

Today the Bijou offers another one of those great wild animal comedy drama productions for which it has become famous. "Tammany's Tiger" starts mildly enough with a doped tiger displayed at a political meeting; but soon the dope loses its effect and things begin to happen. When the extreme limit of excitement seems to have been reached, an entire menagerie is let loose,and the thrills follow in quick succession for two whole reels. This is a truly wonderful production, and one that you cannot afford to overlook.

Starring in this superb thriller is Marie Walcamp ,Lee Hill and other big Universal stars that make of it a startling, realistic and exciting feature from start to finish.

Ben Wilson and Dorothy Phillips are co-stars in a strong Rex dramatic feature "A Cad," startling and realistic, a portrayal of one of the best short stories of the year in pictures.

Then comes the big comedy hit, "A Dark Suspician," starring William Franey and Gale Henry in the leading roles.

UNION REVIVAL SERVICES AT CHADBOURN CONCLUDED.

Attended by Largest Crowds Ever. Great Good Accomplished.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Chadbourn, N. C., June 21.—The revival which has been in progress for two weeks in the new tobacco warehouse, came to a close Sunday night. Dr. E. T. Liddell, who has been doing the preaching, announced Sunday morning that the evening service would be the last. Many were deeply disappointed and grieved when this announcement came, for all had confidently expected the services to continue on in the present week.

The three services held Sunday marked the climax of the meetnig. At 11 o'clock a record-breaking congregation heard Dr. Liddell's masterly sermon on "Heaven." In the afternoon at 3 o'clock there were at least a thousand men assembled to hear his address on "Social Sins". But the largest attendance of the meeting was on the evening service. No doubt this was the largest audience ever assembled in Chadbourn. Seats to accommodatet 1,300 had been provided. At 8 o'clock, when the prayer and praise service was begun, these seats were all taken, and 200 or more who came in before the sermon were compelled to stand.

On invitation, at the close of the service several came forward and gave their names to the pastors of the churches in the community, for church membership. But these are just a few of many converts. Many country churches throughout the county will have additions and reclamations as a result of these services. The whole community is glad Dr. Liddell came, and all are alike sad over his leaving. He preached Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week at Evergreen, eight miles from Chadbourn. On Sunday he is scheduled to begin a series of services at Enfield.

Bureau of Tuberculosis Gives Notice to All Delinquent Ones.

Raleigh, N. C., June 21.—The Bureau of Tuberculosis of the State Board of Health is serving notice on all delinquent physicians and heads of institutions for the treatment of diseases according to the law that requires them to report all cases of tuberculosis under their charge to the Bureau of Tuberculosis within seven days after they have recognized the disease. A communication from the Bureau of Tuberculosis, at Sanatorium, N. C., says that only one-third of all the cases of tuberculosis in the State are being reported, and while no prosecutions have yet been made for violation of this law, that the means to have it enforced in the future will not be withheld.

The bureau says further that there were 305 deaths from tuberculosis during the month of April in North Carolina and that this number is a fair average for every month in the year. This shows that there are over 3,600 deaths from tuberculosis in this State every year.

According to the Bureau of Tuberculosis, it is imposisble for this department of the State government to effect any progress along the line of controlling this disease in the State unless there be a faithful compliance with the law on the part of every physician in the State.

WANT COL. FAISON PROMOTED.

Native of Duplin County One of Best Drilled Men in the Army.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 21.—Friends and relatives in Wilmington and elsewhere in this section will be interested in the following from H. E. C. Bryant, the well known Washington correspondent:

"Congressmen Webb and Hood have been working to secure the promotion of Col. S. L. Faison, formerly of Faison, now in charge of the 25th Infantry of the regular army, stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, to brigadier general under the army reorganization bill recently enacted by Congress."

Colonel Faison is said to be one of the best drilled soldiers in the United States army. In the war with Spain he was elected to drill soldiers at West Point. He is a fine character, perfect specimen of manhood, and his friends everywhere would be glad to see him become a brigadier general. Colonel Faison is a native of Duplin county.

LONG STAPLE COTTON

Production of 1915 Shows Increase —Amount was 825,000

Washington, June 21.—Production of long staple cotton, that of 1 1-8 inches and upward, in the 1915 crop amounted to 825,000 bales, or 7.4 per cent. of the crop, according to a special report of the Department of Agriculture. There was a general increase in 1915 in relative production of recognized varieties in sections devoted to its cultivation. In Mississippi, where it seemed for a time threatened by total extinction following the arrival of the boll weevil, the increase was material. The wide introduction through the delta section of vogorous and early fruiting varieties have revived and given renewed impetus to its production.

The principal producing states of long staple were Mississippi, 220,000 bales; Texas, 200,000; Arkansas, 118,000; South Carolina, 91,000, and Oklahoma 86,000. In price long staple upland showed an average margin of two cents per pound over short staple. The biggest margin of difference was in Mississippi and South Carolina where greatest attention is given to production of distinct long staple varieties, for which a premium of five cents or more a pound frequently is realized.

COTTON IS SENT UPWARD

All Months Rise Above the Thirteen Cent Level but Prices Later Fall Under Reaction.

New York, June 21.—A further advance on the opening of th cotton market today carried all months above the 13-cent level, but heavy realizing caused reactions, with December selling off from 13.43 to 13.27 and closing at 13.28. The general list closed steady net unchanged to six points lower.

Houses with Liverpool connections were good buyers here, while there were a god many overnight buying orders. First prices were five to eight points higher in consequence with July and October selling at more than $3 per bale abov ethe low level on the decline early in the month. This advance attracted heavy profit-taking. Old Southern longs were said to be among the selers. The weekly weather report checked the decline around midday, but rallies were not maintained, and prices reached a low point during the afternon and the close was within a point or two of the lowest on most positions. Reports of a continued good spot business in the South helped to sustain the late months.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Prices Move Within Narrow Range. Profit Taking Causes Loss.

New Orleans, June 21.—Cotton moved within a narrow range here today, the most active months at the highest being 5 to 7 points over yesterday's close and at their lowest 6 points under. The close was at a net loss of 4 to 5 points. Some profit taking by yesterday's buyers worked against values.

Around the opening yesterday's buying movement continued, but the demand soon was filled. Cables were favorable and rains in the Atlantic States were considered against the crop, although favorable reports came from other portions of the belt. Bearish expectations regarding the weekly weather reports led to selling which put the market to the lowest levels of the day, but the reports were more bullish than expecte dand the market steadied around noon. Spots were unexpectedly quoted at a rise of 7 points which added to the steadiness.

Closing bid: July 12.77; October 12.94; December 13.09; January 13.19; March 13.38.

Spot cotton steady, seven points up; sales on the spot 1,855 bales; to arrive 500 bales; middling 12.88.

WHEAT PRICES ARE NERVOUS

Word of Important Failure in Liverpool Causes Loss on the Average—Close is Unsettled.

Chicago, June 21. — Wheat prices showed much nervousness today and averaged lower, largely as a result of word of an important failure in London. The close here was unsettled, at ¼ to ⅜ down, with July at 1.03 to 1.03⅛, and September at 1.05½.

Corn lost ⅛@¼ to ⅝@¾, and oats, ⅛@¼ to ¼@⅜.

Provisions scored a net advance of ten cents to 82½, the latter in pork.

STOCKS ARE MUCH UPSET

Mexican Situation Causes Depression in Quoted Values—Early Rise Almost Totally Lost.

New York, June 21.—The Mexican situation caused depression in quoted values again today. Overnight developments were regarded as extremely favorable and the Mexicans as a group were among the strongest issues at the opening.

At midday, however, and thereafter Wall Street was alive with disquieting rumors and liquidation was renewed. Forenoon advances of 1 to 3 points in various issues were abruptly surrendered in whole or large part, lowest quotations being registered in the final hour, with fractional recoveries towards the close.

The metal issues manifested acute weakness, coppers suffered less severely. Mexican Petroleum reacted 3 3-8 from its early rise of 2 3-8 with an extreme revival of 2 1-8 for American Smelting.

Rails averaged losses of a point. Rock Island issues were the outstanding features of the session, common stock being in steady demand at an advance of three points, while the debentures 5s rose 3 5-8 to 63 1-4. Shipping shares were again in favor on the prospects of an early reorganization, but suffered from profit taking.

Total sales of bonds, par value, aggregated $4,380,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call, but on local sales the coupon 4s declined 1 per cent.

HEARING ON HAMPTON COTTON MILLS SALE IS COMMENCED

Testimony on the Merits of the Sale is Introduced in Court.

Greenville, S. C., June 21.—Testimony on the merits of the sale of the Hampton group of eight cotton mills by the Parker Cotton Mills Company to Lockwood-Greene & Co., for $2,555,000 was introduced here today before Circuit Judge Mauldin. Stockholders in the Parker company seek to enjoin the company from completing the sale and the hearing today was on whether an injunction shall be issued.

M. C. Branch, of Richmond, and W. E. Beattie, of Greenville, president and vice president-treasurer, respectively, of the Parker company, vigorously denied charges of corruption in connection with the sale. M. L. Marchant, treasurer of the Victor group of mills, testified that the price agreed upon was too cheap. He said the outstanding stock of the Hampton group was $13,000,000 and that the mills earned $150,713 in April this year. Marchant stated that he could not say that officers of the Parker Company had kept information from stockholders.

The hearing is expected to continue several days.

GROWTH OF RED MEN IN THE STATE GRATIFYING

The Grand Council Addressed by Grand Incohonee Downs.

Yesterday's Sessions at Asheville Featured by Reports of Officers and the Principal Address—Election Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 21.—Featured by the reports of the State officers and address by Claude E. Downs, Great Incohonee of the Red Men, the business meeting of the Grand Council of North Carolina Order of Red Men was held at the K. of P. hall on Pack Square this morning at 9 o'clock. The meeting was presided over by Great Sachem D. E. Henderson, who spoke briefly of the work that had been accomplished during the year.

E. P. H. Strunck, Great Keeper of Wampum, reported that the order had a splendid financial record and at the present time there was a reserve fund of over $15,000 in the treasury. His report further showed that there are 178 tribes in the State, with a total of 4,873 members, and that 14 new tribes have been organized and four others revived during the past year, in addition to the establishment of four new tribes of ladies' auxiliaries.

One of the decided features of the morning session was the address by Claude E. Downs, Great Incohonee of the Red Men, who gave an interesting report of the work of the Red Men throughout the United States.

Another business session was held this afternoon in the K. of P. hall and at the session held tonight at 8 o'clock degrees were conferred and all Red Men of good standing were admitted to the council chamber at this time. The election of officers will be held tomorrow. There are about 300 delegates attending the meeting, which opened last night.

WHAT CAN YOU DO FOR CATARRH?

Ask Yourself the question. How often has the doctor failed, as have ointments, salves, vapours? What you should do.

The easy, common-sense method—that costs so little—that is so quickly and vigorously effective—is often the last resort of many Catarrh sufferers. Why, it is hard to say. One of the specialists of the Swift Specific Company in Atlanta—a physician of standing and national reputation because of his knowledge of blood disorders, made the assertion that if the majority of Catarrh sufferers would buy and faithfully take S. S. S., they could effectually get rid of Catarrh.

S. S. S. goes straight to the seat of trouble, the blood. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, comes through the veins and arteries, enables the mucous surfaces to exchange acids and irritating substances for red blood corpuscles that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all Catarrhal poison. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in process of purification.

S. S. S. is made from barks, roots and herbs that are food and tonic for the blood. It stimulates—gives the blood power to throw off poisons. You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely Catarrh often infests the entire system.

You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. It is a remarkable remedy for all blood affections, such as Eczema, Rash, Lupus, Tetter, Psoriasis, Boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write The Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 11, Atlanta, Ga. Avoid substitutes.

that George Davis and Alfred Moore Waddell so loved.

Chairman McGirt Speaks.

The address of welcome on behalf of New Hanover county was delivered by Chairman W. A. McGirt, of the Board of Commissioners, who declared that a peculiar warmth filled his heart when he welcomed the visitors and delegates in behalf of the 40,000 people of New Hanover county. The name of the association, he said, and the work done in that name was enough to earn the admiration and esteem of all who loved the State of North Carolina.

State highways, he declared, would be the keynote of the present convention, and New Hanover county stood ready, he assured his hearers, to wipe out county lines and push forward with all her power toward the realization of a comprehensive system of improved roads for every section of the State. No county appreciated the work of the Association more than New Hanover, he said, and no county could take more pleasure in entertaining the annual convention of the Association. In closing he expressed the hope that the stay of each and every visitor would be not only pleasant but profitable also.

On behalf of the Wilmington Highway Association, Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., president of that organization, delivered a short address of welcome. He mentioned that New Hanover county has some good roads within its own borders and is ready and anxious to see more all over the State—in fact, was ready to do all in its power to further the realization of that hope. On behalf of the Highway Association he extended the convention a most cordial welcome.

Dr. Riddick Responds.

The Acme Male Quartette rendered another very beautiful selection and President Varner then introduced Dr. W. C. Riddick, president of A. & M. College, who delivered the response to the addresses of welcome.

Dr. Riddick, in beginning his remarks, declared that it was not the first time that he had been called upon to play Leah to a more beloved Rachel. He was supposed, he said, to take the place of Lieutenant Governor Daughtridge, who was scheduled to deliver the response, and could not be present.

Dr. Riddick declared that he was not especially fond of speech making—in fact his personal preference rather ran to the contrary—and that he was doing it only because of the deep interest he has and always had, in good roads. He sincerely hoped that he would not do the cause any harm by his remarks. He was not an old man, he affirmed, but when he looked back and recalled the roads of North Carolina as they once were, and thought on the progress that has been made, it almost made him feel old, for certainly North Carolina had in recent years accomplished more in the way of road building than had been accomplished in all the 999 years of Methuselah's life.

A. & M. College, Dr. Riddick declared, was vitally interested in good roads, and as an institution it would spare no effort to further the cause in every possible way.

Dr. Pratt's Recommendations.

Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, of Chapel Hill, secretary of the Association, made a verbal report, supplementary to his written report published in the August, 1915, number of Southern Good Roads, the official organ of the Association. And Dr. Pratt's report really sounded the keynote of the convention, for it contained the recommendations for the coming year's work, which briefly summarized, include the following:

The vigorous support of the State Highway Commission, and active effort in behalf of securing the necessary legislation to enable that body to carry out the work it plans to do.

The support of the movement for good roads everywhere—beginning with the Nation, then the State, then the county and then the township.

The adoption of a strong resolution calling for legislation to prohibit the issuance of bonds for road building unless proper provision is made for the maintenance of the roads to be built.

The publication of a weekly bulletin, or news letter, by the association, for the purpose of aiding in spreading education on road matters, the expense of such a bulletin to be met with money raised by subscription.

The issuance by the association of a road map and route book for the eastern half of the State, similar to the one already issued covering western North Carolina.

Dr. Pratt declared that the support of the State Highway Commission must be one of the main objects of the Good Roads Association. He recalled the work done by the Association in getting through the General Assembly a bill creating the Commission, and pointed out that it is the duty of the Association to go before the 1917 Legislature and secure for the commission the necessary legislation and financial appropriation to enable it to carry out the important work it has planned.

He referred to the Federal Highway bill, which has passed the House and Senate and is now before a conference committee at Washington, which contemplates the expenditure of from 25 to 40 million dollars annually by the Federal government in road building, such roads to be located only where the States through which they run contribute an equal amount to the amount expended by the government and also make proper provision for the maintenance of the road. The last General Assembly appropriated $10,000 for the State Highway Commission, and he was of the opinion that no state ever received more from the expenditure of an equal amount than did North Carolina from the expenditure of this, under the direction of State Highway Engineer Falls.

The Association stood for good roads everywhere, Dr. Pratt said. It knew no township or county lines, but is working for the State first. In fact, putting America first, Dr. Pratt declared, this must be the way if one really expresses the spirit of Americanism about which one hears so much today—America first, then the State, then the county, the one's own local community and finally one's own household. Dr. Pratt expressed the hope that the convention would be the means of spreading such a spirit throughout North Carolina.

To Provide for Maintenance.

He urged the convention to come out with a strong resolution calling upon the Legislature for a bill prohibiting a county or township from issuing bonds to build good roads without at the same time providing for the maintenance of such roads. The building of modern improved highways without any effort to provide for their maintenance is an economic waste, and the elimination of such a practice would mean a big step forward in wiping out all opposition to the cause of good roads.

A bulletin similar in size and shape to the News Letter issued weekly by the University was what he had in mind as an educational medium for the North Carolina Good Roads Association to work with, Dr. Pratt said, and he hoped the Association would see fit to endorse the idea. Such a bulletin would cost from $2,000 to $2,500 for a year, and he was in position to state that half of this amount would be forthcoming provided the Association would raise the other half by subscription.

The route book and road maps for the western half of the State, he said, had practically paid for itself with the income derived from hotel, garage and other advertisements. He recommended the issuance of such a book and collection of maps for the eastern half of the State.

Dr. Pratt's report, while verbal and informal, nevertheless gave a splendid resume of what has been accomplished by the Association during the past year and of what is planned for the future, and he was heartily applauded as he resumed his seat.

Treasurer Joseph G. Brown was detained at Raleigh, and Dr. Pratt read his report, which was referred to the auditing committee.

Director Brown's Report.

Director D. Tucker Brown, in his report, pointed out that it is not an object of the Association to in any way directly raise funds with which to build roads, but rather it aims to promote the cause of good road building through educational means, and to support all worthy movements for the furtherance of good road building. It worked in conjunction with the National Highway Association, of which it was an affiliated body, and which advocated a system of Federal highways, supplemented by State and county highways. He reviewed briefly the details in connection with publishing the route book and road map of the western part of the State, and told something of the plans for the proposed book for the eastern part of the State.

He closed with an outline of the plan whereby it is hoped to have a vice president of the Good Roads Association in every county in the State, and to arouse interest and sentiment in behalf of the necessary legislation from the next General Assembly to back up the Highway Commission and enable it to properly carry out the work for which it was created.

All Enjoying Themselves.

The delegates and visitors all seem to be enjoying themselves to the fullest extent. The Oceanic Hotel, headquarters of the convention, is a lively scene all during the day and well into the wee sma hours of the night. Genial Charlie Hooper and his clever and capable staff of assistants are sparing no effort to make all feel perfectly at home, and they are succeeding wonderfully well. There was little delay in handling the big crowd yesterday, either in the dining room or anywhere else, and many expressions of approval were heard for the efforts of the hotel people to keep things moving along smoothly.

Any of the visitors enjoyed the surf yesterday morning and afternoon, and it will be most popular feature with them throughout their stay. Several parties were outside fishing yesterday, and reported very fair luck. This morning those of the delegates who care to go will be the guests of the Wilmington Highway Association on an outside fishing trip, and another such trip is planned for tomorrow morning.

The United States coast guard cutter Seminole, now outside on a target practice cruise, was anchored about three-quarters of a mile off shore in front of the Oceanic yesterday afternoon and last evening, and the beautiful white vessel was an object of great interest to the visitors.

Everybody is Boosting.

One of the enthusiastic boosters at the convention is Mr. Osmond Barringer, of Charlotte, a pioneer in the automobile business in North Carolina, who drove his car from his home, a distance of 245 miles, in eight hours of running time in spite of what was reported as being miserable roads.

Mr. K. B. Council, member of the county Board of Commissioners of Columbus county, with about a hundred others from that section were out in full attire, red hats and all, last night calling attention to the fact that Columbus is for good roads all the time.

While the auditorium on Harbor Island is not yet complete, the seats have been placed and a covering is on the building, so that the sessions can be held there. In front of the building are numerous exhibits including pictures of good roads in Guilford, where the "Permanent road" movement started; Lee county, Swain county and a number of others.

WAR DEPARTMENT REFUSES TO CONSIDER RALEIGH'S CLAIMS

Has No Thought of Changing Concentration Camp from Morehead.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., June 21. — The War Department refused today to even entertain the idea of having the North Carolina concentration camp changed from Morehead City to Raleigh. At the request of W. H. Pace and John Park, of Raleigh, Representative Pou asked the department to have the camp established at Raleigh instead of Morehead City. Free site, lights, water and streets were offered by the Raleigh people. General Mills, head of the Militia Division here, stated that the proposition could not be considered. He said many of the supplies were already on the way to Morehead City, and nothing could be gained by making a change, such as was suggested. P. R. A.

DANIELS ADDRESSES EDITORS.

Speaks Before National Editorial Association at New York.

New York, June 21.—Editors were urged to be "more than careful" in the present crisis by Secretary of the Navy Daniels in an address today before the National Editorial Association, in convention here. He also urged the editors not to print anything that might precipitate "the worst conditions." Mr. Daniels praised the country newspaper and the independent thought and honest principles.

The Association adopted resolutions asking the Department of Justice and Congress to immediately and thoroughly investigate and remedy the present high price and scarcity of all paper supplies and especially the trouble with white paper products.

ALLEN'S NAME SUBMITTED.

Tar Heel Proposed to President to Fill Supreme Court Vacancy.

Washington, June 21.—The name of W. R. Allen, Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court, was proposed today to President Wilson by Senators Simmons and Overman for the Supreme Court vacancy caused by the resignation of former Justice Hughes.

Yearfiger, 1 dozen gowns; Mrs. William Davis and Miss Athalia LeGrand, gowns; Wilmington Stamp & Printing Company, printing.

Aged Colored Citizen Dies.

Joseph D. Sampson, Jr., colored, 70 years old, one of Wilmington's oldest carpenters, died yesterday morning at 3 o'clock at his residence on South Ninth street after an extended illness. He leaves a wife and eight children. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Mark's Episcopal church of which he was a member.

Norfolk, Va., Results of today's matches in the Virginia state championship tennis tournament indicate that the title will fall either to Eli Whitney, of Boston, or H. T. Kelleher, the Pacific coast player. Kelleher has played successfully through the preliminaries the first, second, third, fourth and fifth rounds.
